Students Take Part in Activities

Pep rallies, dances, football games and organizations seem to be keeping students very busy.

"I'm always doing something. I never have time to just do nothing," states one student.

After school I go home, do my homework then rush off to some school related activity," quotes another.

"I just buzz around with all my friends, and get radical."

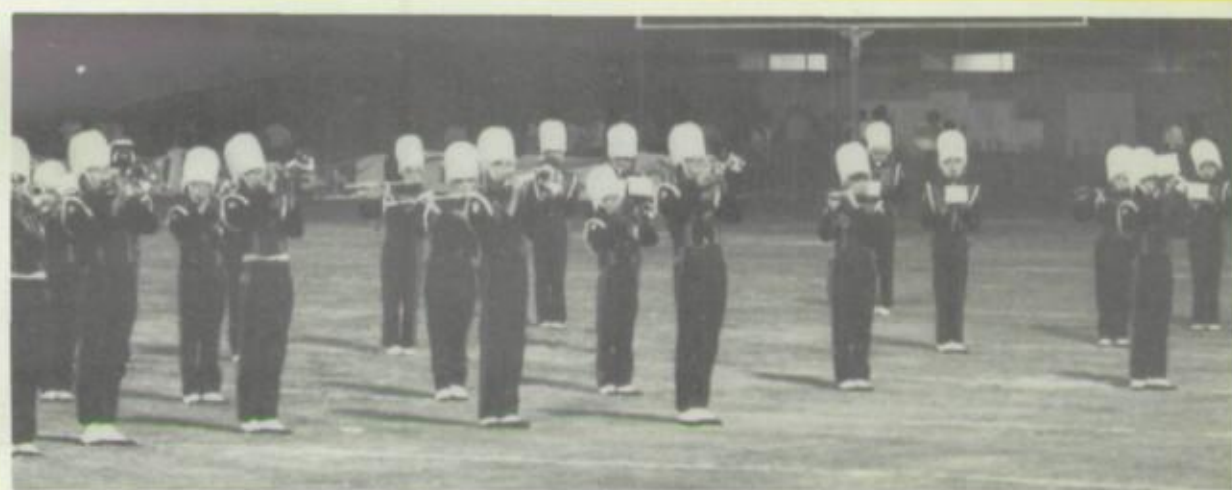

"My friends and I always get together to do homework and have fun. We really enjoy football games."

Events that give us pride

Activities in the 1980-1981 school year were exciting, entertaining, and varied. These activities, including sock hops, pep rallies, class competitions, and Homecoming week, were put together by the House of Lords, Pepsters, and other student body groups.

Sock hops, which were held often after home football games, gave students a chance to dance, socialize, and look back on the game.

Following tradition, Homecoming week was truly memorable. With all classes participating, Buckingham Square took the appearance of downtown Hollywood. The student body was almost as excited as the five princesses, waiting for Friday night and the Queen's Coronation.

Eating Habits . . . Eating Habits . . . Eating Habits

Congress Bans Junk Food

Incoming freshmen and new administrators were only part of the changes Westminster High took in September. One of the major changes were the variety of foods found in the various food machines on campus. Cokes and other soft drinks were replaced with Hi-C drinks, lemonade, grape juice, and other fruit beverages. The usual array of candy bars were diminished to a few favorites and granola bars, peanuts, and more nutritious snacks were instated. These sudden changes were the effects of a new legislative bill passed in Congress. The new bill states that no soft drinks are to be sold on the campuses where federal funds are involved and a wider variety of nutritional snacks are to be made available.

In a survey taken by W.H.S. students, over half failed to consume three balanced meals daily. They either skipped breakfast because of lack of time or skipped lunch because of dieting. Snacks that W.H.S. students claim to be their favorites included fruits, chips, cookies, and candy bars respectively. The survey showed that the majority of the parents raised no objections to their students' eating habits. Many of the students surveyed realized that they had poor diets yet felt they were old enough to choose their own foods despite the consequences. More and more teenagers, however, are beginning to acknowledge the fact that they should be changing their diets. Legislative measures that restrict the selling of junk food was a positive step towards improving the health of today's generation.

Pg. 17-1. During lunch, Chris Camire seems to think eating is very important.

Seniors Shake it up at the Luau

Pineapples, dancing, and lots of fun are what most seniors look forward to around the month of October. It is time for fun and entertainment spent with the senior class only.

The exotic Polynesian food, and dancing, led by Dona Ryan enhanced the festivities.

Special appearances were made by eight Hawaiian beauties who turned out to be Keith Adler, Randy Gates, Chunk Granzella, Scott Hansen, Mike Lewellyn, Jim Mancini, Joel Rodgers and Todd Ruddie. These seniors demonstrated how to shake their hips Tahitian style.

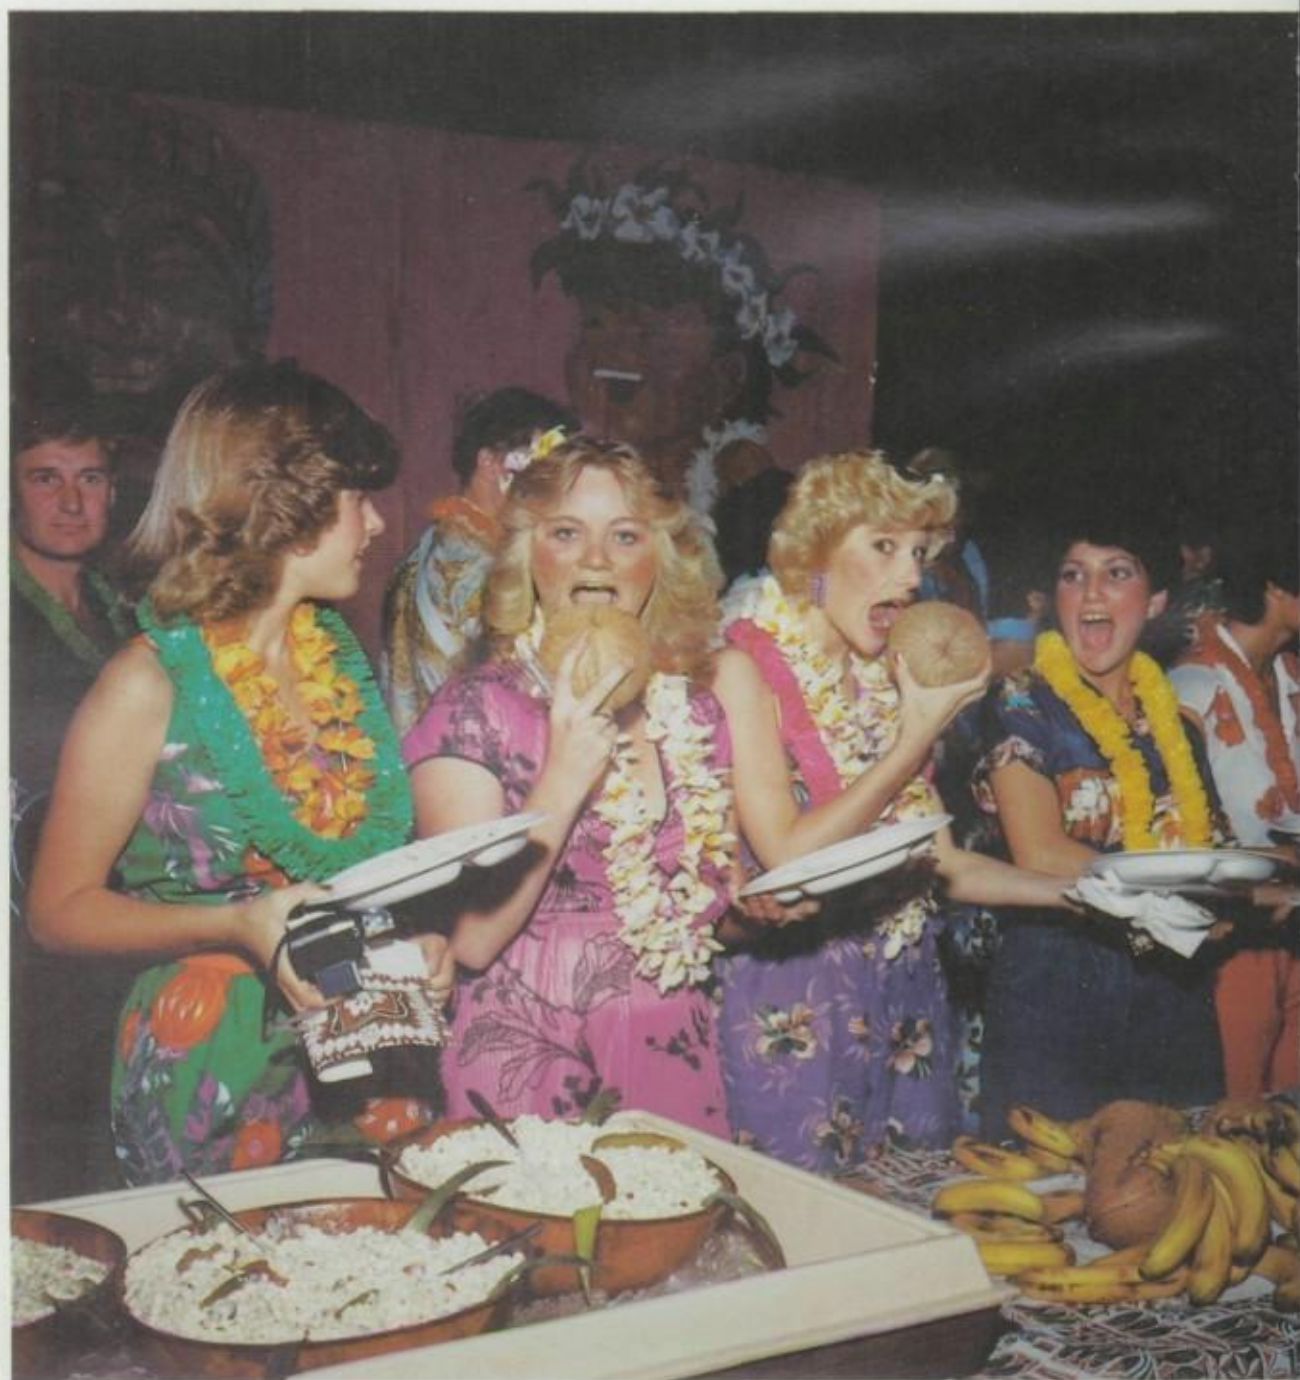

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Luau King and Queen, Randy Gates and Dona Ryan. For all seniors who attended, the Luau will always be a night to remember.

Anything Goes With Fashion

Walking through the halls, the well-dressed students have always captured everyone's eye, and the "Western style" is "in". Students expressed their feelings for the Cowboy Look, and blue jeans, cowboy hats, boots, and shirts are the new fads, along with country western music and dancing. The bright colors of last season are fading out, and rustic shades of dark brown, black, rust, and dark green have come into the picture.

Although there are less people than last year who dressed punk, there are still quite a few students dedicated to the peculiar lifestyle. Many of them have eccentric hair styles and colors ranging anywhere from yellow to purple.

The differences in fashion are very extreme, from conservative to extravagant, but there is more freedom in dressing than there has been in past years.

1. Cowboy hats are in as shown by Sharon Hernandez.
2. Fancy footwear can be seen anywhere on the WHS campus.
3. Dances have always been a favorite time to show off the latest fads as Reggie Bennett demonstrates.
4. Westminster Lions have the Cowboy Spirit!
5. Marcia Meade smiles as Alfred Tauanuu shows off his new skirt "Samoan style."
6. Punk rock is only one fad that we have on campus.

Western Theme Reaches Peasants Prom

On November 1, the city lights met the urban cowboy in our gym at the annual presentation of the Sadie Hawkins Peasants Prom. "Western Hoedown," the theme presented by the Sophomore Class, brought out the cowboy in everyone as one and all dressed up for the three hours of dancing and excitement. Live music played a major role in attracting the large amount of students on the dance floor. 'City Lights' presented a variety of songs, ranging from rock to western to new wave. Awards were given out for various topics, including best-dressed awarded to John Hassapis and Kelley Lang. To add to the excitement, there was a mock wedding ceremony for any couples who were interested. The sophomores again presented one of the most memorable dances of the year.

1. Couples swing their partners. (Pg. 22)
2. Cowfolks gather at the local saloon to take a break. (Pg. 22)
3. A new style of Western Dancing, demonstrated by Lori Hallet and Bob Norton. (Pg. 22)

Students Vote For President

"Who do you think will be the next President?" This was a popular question Americans were asking each other during the few weeks before Election Day. Would it be Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, or John Anderson? Students at Westminster High voted in a mock election and Reagan came out on top. When asked why Reagan was their choice some students remarked, "Carter hasn't done anything for the United States," or "He hasn't gotten back our hostages or kept the promises he made back in 1976." Some students, though, preferred to have Anderson as President. They felt Carter wasn't worth re-electing, and Reagan was too old to be elected.

Eighteen-year-olds who were registered to vote for the first time considered it an honor to cast their vote. Some eighteen-year-olds, however, said that they couldn't care less who became the next President and didn't bother to vote. This attitude could be attributed to the lack of pride as a United States citizen or the immaturity of some eighteen-year-olds.

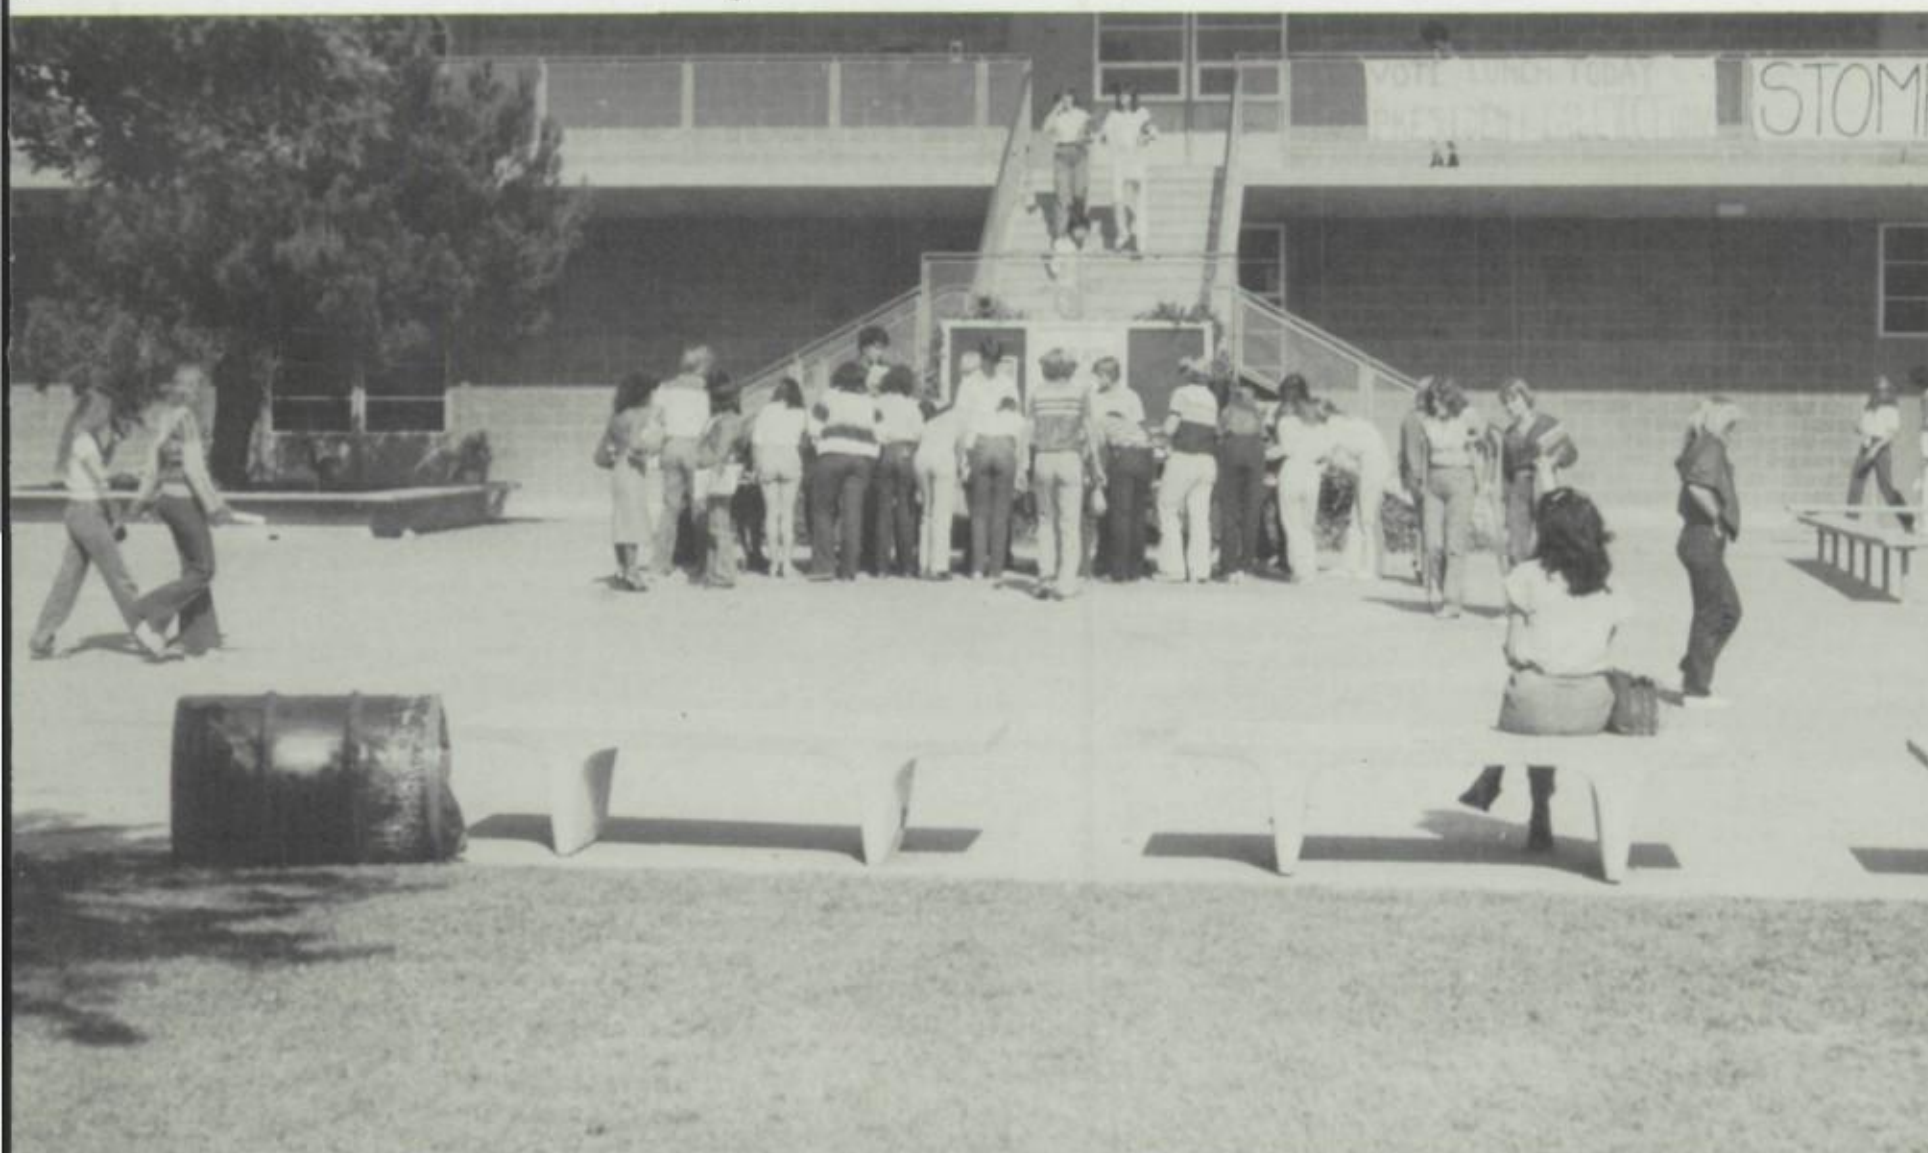

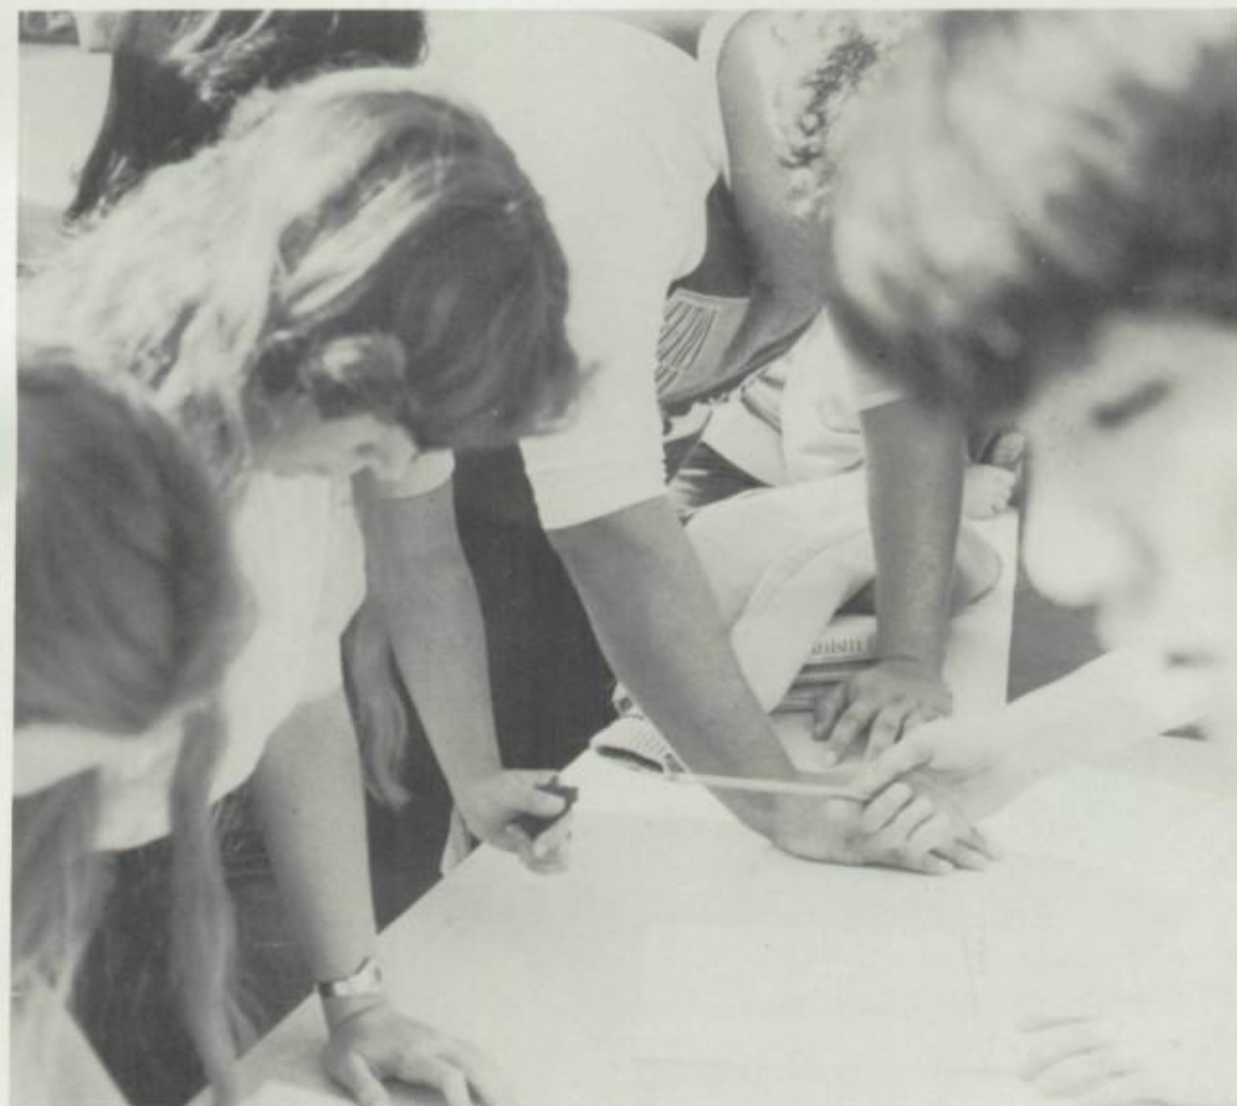

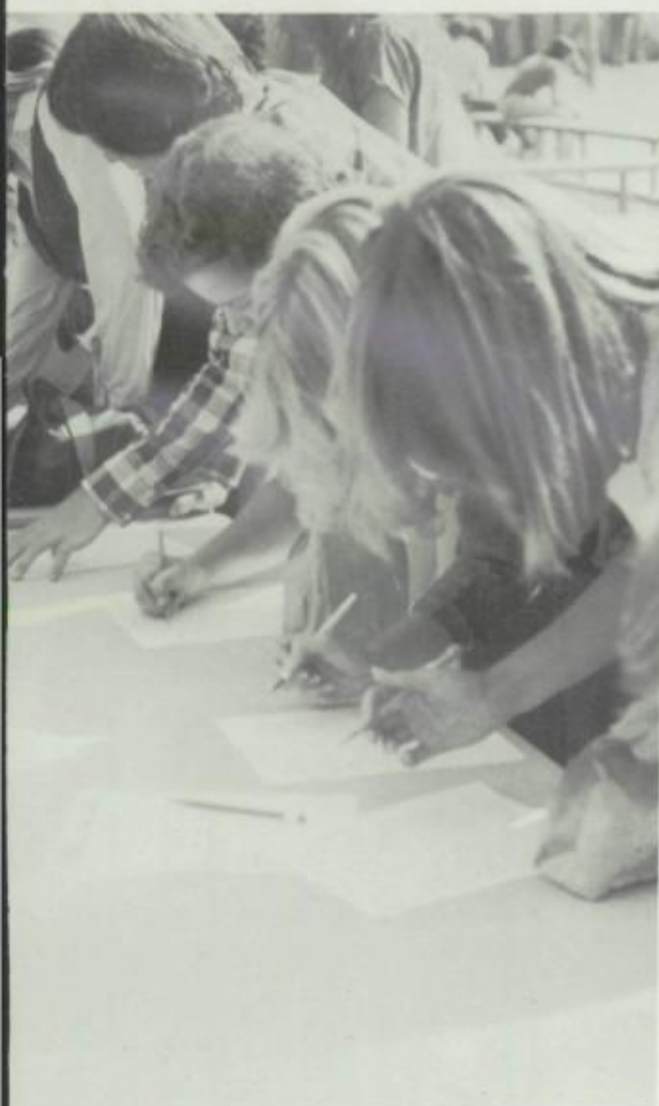

The appeal of Reagan's conservatism seemed to sweep Americans over to the Republican side. Voters felt that a change in the government was needed if serious issues such as inflation and unemployment were to be handled successfully. When Ronald Wilson Reagan, at age 69, was formally announced the winner of the 1980 presidential race, people all over the United States hoped that the next four years would prove to be prosperous for all Americans.

- Pg. 24-1. The official ballot for the students.
Pg. 25-2. Students really take elections seriously.
3. Undecided students vote for president.
4. A lot of people showed up for the elections.

Elections . . . Fall Elections . . . Fall Elections . . .

Pep Rallies . . . Pep Rallies . . . Pep Rallies . . . Pep Rallies . . .

Pep Rallies Spark Enthusiasm

Playing a large part in raising school spirit, pep rallies also helped the players to get 'psyched-up' for the onsetting game. With more than two-thousand fanatical students crowded into the gym, the rallies often became mere shouting matches between rivaling classes. This condition was not in the best interests of the pepsters, who worked hard in developing a program for the show. These interruptions did not seem to lessen the desired effects, however, and may even have helped to spur on good performances as players competed with each other for recognition.

With themes like "The Electrocution of Edison" and "A funeral for Huntington Beach" outlining the agenda for pep parades and pep rallies, students found it easy to capture their own school spirit and pride while watching the cheerleaders perform. Humorous competitions between class and sport representatives also helped to make the pep rallies more interesting and worthwhile for everyone. Special thanks should go to the students on the Pep Council and especially Lizz Allison. Without them, the pep rallies would not have been possible for everyone to enjoy.

Sock Hops ... Sock Hops ... Sock Hops ... Sock Hops ...

Sock Hops Attract The "In Crowd"

Dances, or "Sock Hops", have traditionally been the place to go after a tough Friday night ball game. Students filter in throughout the night, looking for a good time with all their friends. For many of the "Dance Maniacs" the variety of music at the hops, (disco to new wave) gives them a chance to exhibit their skill on the dance floor. Others go merely to talk and socialize with the crowd. The dances were also a place to meet people for the first time. If you are lucky you may have a chance to dance with someone special.

In short, for many students, the dance was the place to be, and we can all appreciate the efforts put out by the school organizations that made the "sock hops" possible for everyone to enjoy.

The Stars Appear On "Hollywood Nights"

The glamour and excitement of Hollywood was brought out in this year's Homecoming Week activities.

The Homecoming court, made up of Sonia Collier, Melody Couron, Jill Hoffman, Bettina Membrilla, and Karen Mueller, was voted on by the student body. The theme, "That's Hollywood", was presented by the Homecoming Committee which consisted of a select group of students.

After the Homecoming Committee kidnapped the five girls on Wednesday morning, they were forced to wear ridiculous outfits to school. The highlight of the lunch-time activities came with the creaming of the court at noontime Wednesday. Water, flour, tomatoes, mayonaise, whipped cream, and glitter was applied to the girls hair and face, trying to catch that Hollywood star look.

The events of Homecoming '80 ended in breath-taking drama Friday night at the football game against Long Beach Wilson. The red carpet was laid out and the band played as the five princesses were introduced. Sonia Collier was announced 1980 Homecoming Queen as fireworks were shot off into the air.

Following the game was a reception for Seniors and football players.

Pep Parade ... Pep Parade ... Pep Parade ... Pep Parade

Pep Parade Returns

Restricted from school three years ago due to student abuse, the pep parade was finally reintroduced into student body activities. Against the advice of advisors, the House of Lords decided to include home-rooms and other student body organizations, thus bringing back the pep parade after three years of abolishment.

In efforts to raise enthusiasm, home-rooms and clubs competed in a float competition parading across the campus along with the football team, cheerleaders, band, drill team, and pageantry corps. The highlight of the rally was a skit entitled "Edison Bites the Dust," put on by the pep council and a few spirited members of the football team. The student body responded with cheering, and the pep parade was regarded as a great success.

1. "Ready to Kill" for the Lions is Lee Afusia.
2. Putting on a dance to "another one bites the dust" is Alfred Tauanuu.
3. Mr. Pacelli's class displays their prize winning float.

SPOOKS SOAR WITH SPIRIT

Excitement and colors filled the campus on Halloween, with participation by students and faculty alike. Witches, devils, ghouls, and other types of monsters came out of hiding for a day full of fun and laughter. The highlight of the activities arrived when the students congregated in Buckingham Square for a costume judging. Halloween was a terrific success and boosted school spirit to an all time high.

1. Susan Thieben's costume reminds us of our Greek Mythology.
2. The four band togas go all out for Halloween.
3. The winners of the Halloween costume contest were scary, original, witty, and very convincing.

Couples Enjoy Romantic Evening Under the Mistletoe

A night of romance, dancing, and fun with friends was the 1980 Christmas Formal, "Under the Mistletoe," sponsored by House of Lords. Couples enjoyed a fantastic night of dancing, & entertainment, with music performed by "Frontseat". Comments included:

"Not enough mistletoe",

Bob Brayton

"Dancing was fun, even with the little people",

Mike Lodge

"I enjoyed being Santa & especially getting my picture taken"

Alfred Tauanuu

"It was different",

Jim Mancini

All couples seemed to be having a good time dancing, and conversing with each other while Santa traditionally delivered candy canes to their tables. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Christmas King, Chuck Granzella, and his court, Bill Corn, Randy Gates, Brian Neville, and Todd Ruddle.

Crowning Highlights Royal Festival

Coronation week was a fun filled and exciting week for all. The Coronation Court participated in many activities such as the three legged relay race, and getting pies smashed in their faces.

After being kidnapped early in the morning by members of House of Lords, they were forced to wear exotic dresses, pajamas, lingerie, clown make-up and uncombed hair to school.

Things brightened up for the ten chosen students that included Michelle Ankeny, Laurie Meade, Dona Ryan, Debbie Solar, Stacey Willet, Lee Afusia, Jim Carlson, Mike Lewellyn, Jim Mancini and Derek Marsh on Friday. The half-time ceremony was a special event for those who attended the Varsity Basketball game on January 23rd, where Jim Mancini and Michelle Ankeny were crowned Coronation King and Queen for 1981. After the Ceremony, a reception was held for the Court and their escorts.

Pg. 36, 1) During Coronation week, the male members of the court show the girls just how much fun getting ready can be, demonstrated by Jim Carlson, Derek Marsh, Mike Lewellyn, Lee Afusia, Jim Mancini, Stacey Willet, Laurie Meade, Michelle Ankeny, Dona Ryan and Debbie Solar.

Pg. 36, 2) Yuck! exclaims Jim Mancini during the Pie auction. "Dressing up like a girl is no fun."

Pg. 36, 3) Jim Mancini and Michelle Ankeny stroll down the red carpet during the half-time ceremony.

Pg. 37, 4) Waiting patiently for a pie in the face is Derek Marsh.

Pg. 37, 5) Showing he's the sexiest of all nominees is Jim Carlson.

Cupid's Arrow Strikes Many at the Valentines Dance

The theme 'Lost in Love' created a romantic atmosphere for the Valentine's dance, held at the Garden Grove Community Center on February 7. Couples had an evening of entertainment, fun, and a mixture of slow and fast music was provided by Kicks.

Students enjoyed dancing, conversing with friends, and eating refreshments provided by co-sponsors Teps and Interact. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of the Valentine King and Queen, Joel Rodgers and Marcia Meade. The court included Lizz Allison, Marianne Miyada, Bobby Kershner, and John Hassapis. For all those who participated, it was an evening spent 'Lost in Love.'

A Brand New Pride in . . . Organizations

HOUSE OF LORDS TAKES CHARGE

Under the direction of Barbers Atwood, House of Lords successfully planned out an interesting and active year. They planned and organized noon time activities, the Christmas Formal, Homecoming and coronation court, United Way, Student of the months, Child Abuse Campaign, International Festival Week, and raised money throughout the year through other activities. All the students involved in the House of Lords conscientiously worked together and made our school active both here and in the community.

Choraleers Provide Entertainment

A group of students dedicated to a life of singing made up the choraleers, whom with a lot of hard work performed for audiences throughout the year.

In their efforts to raise money for performances, the group had many fundraisers such as car washes, candle and jewelry sales. The choraleers put some fun and entertainment into normal school life. They seemed to be a success with whatever they did.

Newspaper Staff Presses On

Reaching out to all students was the main goal of the newspaper staff. Under the guidance of Karen Friedrich, all were able to get the job done.

The newspaper staff had a lot of fun and always had their deadlines in on time. They put out a very concise and well written paper. Good job!

Yearbook Staff Labors To Meet Deadlines

Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines were all the more conscientious students on the yearbook staff could think of throughout the year. The staff faced many pressures and there were times when we weren't even sure there would be a yearbook. The problems began with the dispute over Senior memories and worked up to the way the Index was arranged.

Mrs. Erdman, being a new advisor, did a sensational job. Although she had no prior experience in Journalism, she soon had the class organized. The Editor-in-chief, Shelley Segars, did an expert job on layouts and design and should be commended for her capabilities in the overall production.

The end product looked professional and did not reveal the stresses and hardships suffered by the staff.

Caring Hearts Contribute to Community

Among the many clubs at our school was Teps. Teps, a service club, made up of members who care about other people, served both WHS and the community. They helped at school registration, visited hospitals, convalescent homes, collected canned food and money for needy families, helped Senior Citizens, and painted over graffiti found around the community. Funds were raised primarily by working football concessions, bake sales and selling "Current". All members had at least a 2.0 grade point average and a very caring heart.

CSF Strives for Academics

Productive and successful our school's chapter of the California Scholarship Federation has made tremendous gains. Directed by Mike Lodge, the organization's president, CSF hosted a UCLA day, when students were afforded an opportunity to tour the UCLA campus and talk with alumni. CSF day at Disneyland, although less educational, was enjoyed by all, including officers, John Hart, John Hassgn's, and Jerilyn Higa.

MECHA

Members

Enjoy

Socializing

MECHA, or the Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Atzlan, was very instrumental in getting the Chicanos students active in school. MECHA translates to, roughly, the movement of Chicano students of Aztec Southern California.

This group is dedicated to supplying better opportunities for its members. Bringing their traditional culture into school to promote pride in their heritage, they celebrated Cinco de Mayo with dancing, music and fundraisers. Other fund raising activities included candy sales, dinners, and car washes.

GEMA is Active for the Third Year of its Existence

"Grupo Estudiantil Mexicano Activo," is what GEMA was all about. The club's name translates to "active group of Mexican students". There were no special qualifications to be involved. Throughout the year, these students continually made efforts to raise money for scholarships and to get more students involved in school activities. Having festivities such as school-wide Cinco de Mayo celebrations, raffles, dinners, food booths, car washes, and candy sales all made it possible for students to do something together and for a good cause.

Der Deutsche Club Vergnugt sich Mit Deutschen Traditionin.

The purpose of the German Club was to introduce students to German customs. Membership was open to all grade levels and enrollment in German was not mandatory. Working concessions was one of their fund raising activities. The entire club had a great time throughout the year learning and becoming interested in Germany and its culture.

In Latino Credimus!

One of the largest clubs on campus was the Latin Club. The club promoted the study of Latin. Latin students or a student who had had Latin were eligible to join. Members of the club raised funds by working concessions, selling Easter eggs, and selling stationery. During the Christmas season, the students participated in a pizza party and in March they held their annual Roman Banquet. Scholarships to Latin students who are furthering their study of the language in college are offered by the club.

El Club de Espanol es Magnifico

Gaining an understanding of the Spanish language while having fun and working together was the main objective to the Spanish Club. Working concessions, selling popcorn, and selling candy were a few of the fund raising activities the club engaged in.

Enjoying Mexican meals together and completing the evening skating were among the social activities participated in by the members. Students interested in Spanish and it's culture were welcomed to join. Although the club was small, the dedicated students worked hard but had fun.

Vive Le Club Francais

French Club played an active role around campus. Its main purpose was to provide a social outlet for those united in the common interest of French culture through its language.

Going into Los Angeles to see French films was only one of the many social activities they participated in. They also planned a large excursion to Catalina, a Christmas party, and a weekend ski trip.

To help acquire money, the club sold popcorn during lunch, held car washes, and had many members attend a pizza night.

To become a member of the French Club, all one needs is to have an interest in French culture and the language.

"This club is very enthusiastic . . . a crazy group . . . eager to work and eager to play", Miss Butler, the club advisor, was quoted as saying.

Many Newcomers

Blistering heat and dry spells followed the Ski Club on their many excursions. Skiing out of state was an extremely virorous exercise, but the members had quite a bit of fun despite this handicap. For their Christmas trip, the members skied Utah, including Snowbird, Alta, and Powder Mountain. Purgatory, Colorado was the site of their Easter Vacation.

"Skiing with the other members gave me a great chance to become good friends with them," one of the members was quoted as saying.

Thespians present "A Midsummer Nights Dream"

Thespians presented their fall production of "A Midsummer Nights Dream" by William Shakespeare, in the Globe West Theater. The play ran through December 9th to the 13th. Opening night, as well as the remaining three nights were a great success. It was directed by Rosemary Stevens, with the help of student directors, Rose Marcario, and Fred Knehans. Music was set up by Joseph Kral.

Midsummers day was traditionally a general holiday and a time of merry-making. Midsummers nights dream was the grand festival for witches and fairies. As common in Elizabethan plays there are three stories the complex love affair of Lysander, Hermia, Demetrius, and Helena. The casting, rehearsals, and performances of the comical tragedy of Pyramus and Thisbe by working men of fairyland. Each plot is connected with the others, and all center around the wedding of Theseus and Hippolyta.

Some of the most comical moments in the play are created by Puck, a mischievous Hobgoblin, who casts spells on the lovers causing each to fall in love with the first person he or she sees upon awakening.

Globewest players and Thespians act out their fantasies in "A Midsummer Nights Dream."

Playing their part in school activities, the Globe West Players once again had a terrific performing season. Members of the club raised money by participating in several activities which included an informal party attended by all members.

Later they held their spring banquet which was semi-formal and featured entertainment and dinner.

Globewest players, well known for their activities, once again participated in concession stands at home football games and also sold candy in their spare time.

Interact Serves School and Community

Providing services for the school and community was the main purpose of Interact.

Among the club's fund-raising events were a booth at the Halloween Penny Carnival in the Westminster Mall, and assistance in the jogathon activities. Their altruism reached many needy children with this money, taking them on picnics and other events. They were also proud to donate money to the United Way. Further donations included food and clothing to the residents of Mexico.

Interact is sponsored by Rotary International. The people of Interact feel very good about their club. They enjoy helping others and are proud of their work.

Pepsters Raise School Spirit

Dedicated, inspirational, spirited, and energetic are just a few ways to describe this year's Pepster groups. Working as a total unit, the 1980-81 Pepsters accomplished many goals they set for themselves. The primary goal was to raise the spirit at WHS and to get more students involved. Another was to involve the underclassmen in more active roles. Both goals were accomplished!

Over the summer, they attended an NCA/CADA spirit camp at UCSB where they walked away with the following top awards: three spirit sticks, superior and excellent ratings, superstar squad awards and to our flag team the top camp award, and the Squad of Excellent Megaphone. Camp was an exciting experience. Many concepts taught were used all year. Of course, these were stressed by advisor, Janet Whittenberg, a member of the camp staff.

Many hours were spent on practicing making posters and fund-raising. The girls raised a substantial amount of money to pay for camp.

Advisor Janet Whittenberg summed up the year saying, "Thanks for your hard work, friendship, and for the memories."

Cheerleading: Is it All Fun and Games?

Unfortunately, most people do not consider the hard work involved in being a cheerleader. What we see is only the end result of many hours of hard work and practice. For instance, we never consider the time it takes to make one of the posters that they put up on campus. Mixed in with the hard work, however, is a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment. Many of the cheerleaders enjoy the camaraderie between each other and share many memorable experiences.

John Hiraga

"Cheerleading is not exactly what everyone seems to expect. It's a lot of work and very time-consuming but I wouldn't trade this year for anything."

Shelley Segars

"Everyone thinks that cheerleading is just fun and no work. It's not! People do not realize how much work we put into everything we do. But it's great, and it's made my high school years fun. Being appreciated makes up for all the hard work. It's the best!"

Patti Gressman

"I have been in cheerleading for four years and wouldn't trade them for anything. It may be a lot of work, but one 'thank you' makes up for all the hard times."

Shannon Frederick

Janet Whittenberg Sets Pace for Drill Team

Under the new leadership of Janet Whittenberg, the Drill Team displayed talent in their many flawless performances, on and off the competition field.

On the competition field, they displayed their Lion Spirit by doing extremely well in their Class A division. First place was received at the Western High School Field Tournament; third place awards were presented to the Lionettes at the Orange and Los Altos High School Field Competitions. They also received a third place in the Westminster Founder's Day Parade. During the summer, the drill team members attended the U.S.A. Drill Team Camp at U.C.S.B., also receiving a trophy for their superior efforts.

Off the field of rivalry, they were frequently seen at football games performing with the band.

"The reason for their great success," states Janet, "is the new entertainment-unit concept—all three groups worked together."

Many hours of practicing and perfecting routines also played a major role in their success.

Motivators Push Pride

What would a school be without the groups who proudly wear the school colors and promote school pride? What would a football game be without that ever-popular half time show or the constant spirit-raising on the sidelines? WHS had it all—exciting half time shows and energetic leaders during the game.

The Lion Entertainment Unit, led by Drum Major Joe Thelander, had a successful season competing in the top field show tournaments for 1980. They brought home top honors from all contests! Majorette Kelly Whitfort twirled the baton of fire several times which thrilled the spectators everytime.

The Lion Pepsters, who spent many, many hours practicing and perfecting routines, painting posters, attending all sports events, holding fund-raising events, and whatever else was requested of them, still managed to keep spirits high. The '80-'81 unit was very effective in getting the crowd more involved in cheering the teams to victory.

All motivators could be seen this year leading the noon rallies to Buckingham Square. The rally which will always be remembered was the "Funeral of the Oilers", when the band marched through the school, escorted with flower-carrying drill team members, pepsters, and with the band playing the "Death March." Lion pride was evident from all performing units!!

Lion Band Marches to Victory

Directed by Conductor Ken Woesner and Drum Major Joe Thelander, the Westminster High School Marching Band performed impressively throughout the competitive season.

As prestigious host for the Founder's Day Parade, the band led a procession of over twenty-five bands from all over the county. On October 29, 1980, they opened their season with the Western High School Field Tournament. Lions took all four sweepstakes there. One week later, at the Orange Tournament, the Percussion Line drummed its way to a first place in their category, with the entire band placing third over all. At the Los Altos Tournament, the Lion Band also placed third while capturing the music sweepstakes. These victories rewarded both the band and Mr. Woesner for their hard work and dedication throughout the year. Congratulations were in order for all involved.

A Brand New Pride In . . . Sports

A Variety of Sports Attracts the Crowds

Participation in sports has always been an important part of being in high school. Fortunately, for those that cannot be successful on the playing field, there is an alternative: active spectating. Westminster offers such a diversified range of sports that there is almost certainly something for everyone to be able to enjoy. Ironically, many of the fans develop more enthusiasm for the sports than can be observed in the players. Football games, for instance, often are accompanied by groups of wild and rowdy students who cheer so loud that they become as breathless as the athletes. Devotion at this level should be noted as well as the interaction on the field. The fans play a very important role in school sports and those that have been loyal supporters of the Westminster teams deserve a round of applause.

Varsity Football Closes the Season with a Disappointing Coin Flip

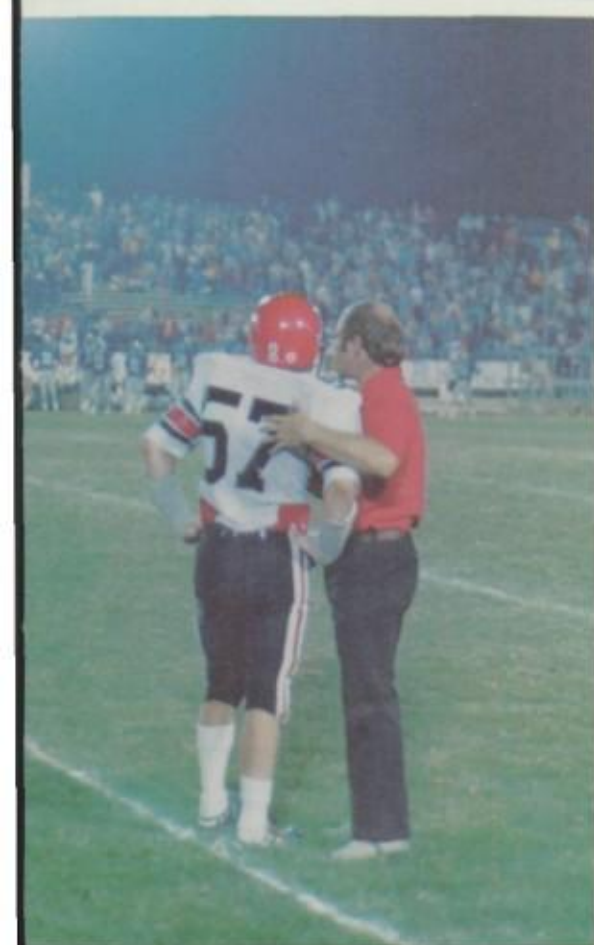

Words alone can't express how the Lions felt after their games against Marina and Newport.

Both games were played with strength and a great show of ability. The loss to Marina was however, felt the hardest by everyone. John DeCaprio feels that the Lions are winners because; "Their performances came not only from their strength but from their hearts."

At half time, the Lions held off the Newport Sailors with a 7-0 score. This came about due to the excellent running of Eric "the flea" Willingham. No matter how hard they tried, the Sailors could not stop "the flea".

After a victorious 14-7 game, the Lions found out that a coin had been flipped before the game and all hopes of going to CIF were wiped out.

The Lions played a grreat season and the students were very proud of their outstanding Varsity Football Team. The Lions really were the "Brand New Pride" of WHS!

Varsity Football Commands a Brand New Pride

Opening the season with great expectations, the Lion's Varsity Football Team proved to all of its fans that it truly had the 'Lion pride.' Led by such seasoned players like Eric Willingham, Dave Harris, Joel Rodgers and Jim Carlson, the Lions were picked by many to win Sunset League.

They went through the pre-season with a disappointing 2-3 record, hoping to turn things around in league action. They lost three tough games to Edison, Marina and Fountain Valley, after a league opening victory over Huntington Beach.

The Lions didn't seem to put things together after the late coaching change. The Lion offense which clicked at times was led by returning quarterback, Dave Harris, All-League tail back Eric Willingham, and returning starters John DeCaprio and Mike Lewellyn.

The swarming Lion defense had leaders such as Steve Osborne, Jim Carlson and Phil Jones. The Lions had a consistent defense and showed quality sportsmanship throughout the season. Coach Barry Waters has high hopes for the upcoming year.

The Men Behind The Scenes

When watching the Big Red Machine play football, all one sees is the team, or to be more specific, the players. No one stops to think about the men who taught the players everything they need to know to be successful on the field: the coaches.

Barry Waters, the head Varsity coach, has done an exceptional job coaching our team this year. He devoted his spare time and effort to build our team into something we could be proud of.

This could not have been accomplished, however, without the help of his assistant coaches. These include Rick Bashore, Jack Bowman, Mike Dodd, Rick Garretson, Larry Grady, Dave Love, and trainer Ron Eagle.

Everyone involved in football this past year should be commended on their efforts. The Lions played well and proved to our opponents that we have the 'Lion Spirit.'

- 1) Coach Waters gets totally involved in the football games.
- 2) Dave Harris listens as Coach Waters explains the other teams weaknesses.
- 3) Coach Bowman and Coach Dodd are observing the game.
- 4) Coach Waters watches as the Lions' defenses keeps Edison from scoring.
- 5) Coach Bowman and Ted Smith discuss which play to use next.
- 6) John Fitzgerald and Ron Eagle walk off the field.

Lion Cubs are Fierce

Tremendous victories over LaQuinta 13-7 and Pacifica 14-0 paid the way to an incredible season for the lion sophomore football team.

Led by sophomore quarterback Steve Washbon the young team finished with a 7-3 record. Noted for most valuable offensive player was Steve Ferris, credit also allotted to running back Bobby Goode, who contributed impressively by scoring 35 points.

The defensive unit for the lions also performed well with outstanding efforts being put second by defensive tackle Rick Cuellar and left back.

1. Coach Davis explains the play to Jerry Weatherbee.
2. Steve Ferris gets a little bit more than he bargained for!
3. A pregame pep talk is given to the Lions by Coach Marquez.

Champions of Years to Come

Winning 5 out of 9 games, Freshman Football teams have out done themselves once again. Some of the outstanding victories included games over Edison, with a score of 22-0 and Ocean View at 25-0.

A few of the offensive players that helped to bring us our victories were Mike Wong, and Brad Weaver. The defense, which also came on strong, was helped greatly by Walt Torres and Kevin Kappin.

"This is the most hopeful class of Freshman boys that I have seen come through Westminster High. They have two qualities that have been missing in other classes; character and self-discipline." These statements were made by Coach Bob Cossarek when asked about the team's future.

1. Looking for someone to pass the ball to is Mike Ruddle.
2. Brad Weaver is evading an opposing player.
3. Running down the field for a touchdown is Brandon Jones.

Running To Victory

The 1980 season started out on a slow pace, but as the runners became more adept to conditions, they performed as champions.

Varsity runners showed strength in their competitions, including impressive wins over Fountain Valley, Edison, and Huntington Beach. Two of the most outstanding runners by far were Ken Ellingboe and Dave Huddleston.

Junior Varsity also finished the season with great victories gearing themselves up for Varsity running next year.

In the SAT Invitionals, all the teams did well. Coach DeWenter remarked, "We had a great Sophomore and Junior returns this year, and I hope next year is just as good."

1. Dave Huddleston and Ken Ellingboe win the race for the Lions against Edison.
2. Carmine Polito comes in ahead of the other runners.
3. Dave Huddleston gives his all during the races.

Girls Volleyball Takes It All The Way

The Girl's Volleyball team made it all the way to the CIF playoffs and finished off in 4th place.

The team consisted of only 4 returning players and 10 first year players that did very well. They rounded off the season with 5 wins and 5 losses.

The Lions volleyed very well in the Huntington Beach Tournament and placed 2nd. This year was very commendable and Coach Lindquist says that; "I hope next year will end just as good, I'm very proud to coach a real great team!"

1. Amy Choy sets the ball for Carolyn Kienast.
2. Carolyn Kienast spikes the ball.
3. Carol Fritsch serves the ball.

Water Polo Goes to C.I.F.

Water Polo started out the season with impressive victories over Kennedy and Lakewood. These wins set the pace for a rewarding season and a berth in the C.I.F. playoffs for the first time since 1974.

"We were ready to go," commented Varsity Coach Jeff Haber. The water polo team played well throughout the season but it was not without its upsets. Giving up some games critical to the season was a disappointment for some of the fans, but with the best record in six years we couldn't complain. "We played better in the playoffs," said Coach Haber; "it just was not good enough."

The varsity team, which was characterized by big, strong players, was led by seniors Randy Gates, Bill Corn, and Scott Hansen. Although the team will not have these players next year, coach Haber says to look forward to next year for plenty of excitement. The 1981 Varsity team will be here with Spirit and the desire to WIN!

1. Bill Corn passes the ball to a team member.
2. Coach Haber gives his team a pre-game pep-talk.
3. Scott Hansen with the help of Craig Hayden blocks a goal.

Tennis Is Their Racket

The Lion's Tennis Team had a very outstanding season with victories over Edison and Marina.

A big credit can go to the team effort this year. The attitude toward sports has been getting better and better. Jackie Martinez, Sandra Bruce and Kim McGrew were just a few of the outstanding players.

Coach Baie is looking to a great returning team next year as most of the Varsity members are underclassmen.

1. Coach Baie, P. Hueseth, N. Pomren, K. McGrew, P. Ward, K. Macera, Front Row—J. Martinez, C. Bogan, M. Yazzie, B. Vagarino, S. Bruce, M. Meade.

Girls Soccer Goals For It

Girl's Soccer, for the first year has made it's first debut as a CIF team. This all came about due to the fund raising events the girls made.

Victories over Laguna Hills 2-1 and Santa Fe Springs 3-1 were the best games played. The goalie, Jackie Plant, was one of the most commemerative players, along with Kim Sharp, Dana Haskins and Maurie Newhouse.

The coach, Nate Matza, firmly believes that "Girls can do anything", and by giving their 110%, the Lions proved this to their proud Coach.

1. Top Row—Coach Nate Matza, Mngr, L. Hein, G. Milloy, M. Ramirez, D. Haskins, M. Newhouse, L. Crane, P. Cox, Mngr Brian, Front Row—D. Feyo, T. Butler, D. Dibs, T. Escudero, M. Zepeda, K. Sharp, D. Nelson, A. Clarke, K. Antonacci, Goalie Jackie Plant.

Wrestlers Pin 'em Again!

The Lion's Varsity Wrestling team moved up their record to an incredible 17-3, improving on last year's record of a 14-4. Their losses were tough ones against LB Millikan, Fountain Valley and a very tough duel against South Hills.

Contributing to their great success was Jim Mancini, Brian Neville and Tim Castoreale.

Coach Bob Cossarek had held a great amount of pride in his wrestlers as did others.

1. Darrell Takeda begins his match.
2. Eric Reynolds has his opponent in a head lock.
3. Doug Kersey wins his match for the Lions.
4. Top Row; M. McKinney, J. Dunk, M. Blum, D. Kersey, E. Reynolds, B. Neville, Front Row; J. Harrel, J. Mancini, D. Takeda, J. Mettler, T. Castoreale, P. Bermudez, A. Casas.
5. Jerry Mettler pins his opponent.
6. John Harrel is pinning his opponent.

Junior Varsity, Sophomores and Freshmen Do IT Too!

The underclass teams seem to be following the footsteps of Varsity.

The players accredited to being the most supported were Alfred Tauanuu, Pete Werth and John Mozden.

The Junior Varsity team is looking forward to another great season next year too. Though many JV players will be Varsity next year, they will have enough strong players from the Soph/Frosh team to make up an excellent JV team.

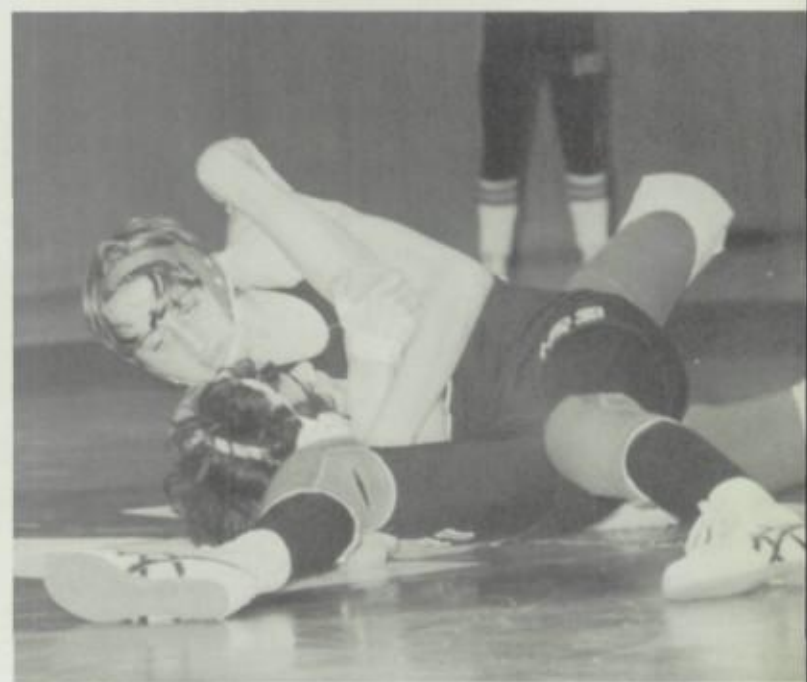

1. Top Row; Forrest, J. Brumbaugh, J. Mozden, A. Tauanuu, P. Werth, R. Leible, Front Row C. Almira, R. Hopkins, M. Harrel, R. Tiono, K. Schmal.

Guys Soccer-it To 'Em!

Varsity Soccer opened the season with outstanding victories over Huntington Beach 3-1, and Edison 2-1.

This came about due to the precision passing and super terrific sportsmanship attitude. This soccer team relies on communicating with each other, and being there to back up a player when he is in trouble.

This team mainly consists of teamwork, working together as a team, and being one of the best teams in League.

1. Ron Barbacheck takes the ball away from a HB player.
2. Jim Carlson, Fullback, passes the ball to another team member.
3. Glenn Angenet takes a shot on goal.
4. Tony Verti charges an opposing team member.
5. Top Row L to R; Coach John, R. Avalos, D. Rupprecht, M. Flores, C. Garland, J. Engedal, J. Carlson, R. Barbacheck, Coach Berg. Front Row—H. DeGuzman, J. Trani, R. Berg, J. Sharp, R. Lopez, G. Angenet, E. Sanchez, D. Tabone.

Hockey Players Stick it Out.

Opening the season with a 2 to 1 victory over La Quinta the Varsity Hockey Team proceeded to have a victorious season.

Coached by Ms. Carol Eseman they played their way into a third place league standing which sent them to CIF. Comments one of the team members, "Our record wasn't as good as last years, but Ms. Eseman didn't get mad. She made us feel good for what we did and didn't compare our third place league standing to last years easily captured first."

Captain of the team halfback Anne Mulherin kept spirits high even when scoring was low. Anne being one of the two retiring Varsity players did an excellent job as did the other, Penny Steinbach, who played as goalie.

1. Top row: P. Steinbach, J. Lackey, M. Ankeny, S. Segars, J. Bryan, L. Cox, K. Mueller, Coach Eseman

JV Hockey Goals Their Way To Success

The team, led by Coach Swemba, ended its season with a great seven win, six loss and two tie record. Their league record was four wins, four losses and two ties. They gained one of those wins by defeating the number one team, Newport, by a score of 2-0. That was Newport's only loss.

The entire team was made up of two returning players and thirteen new players. The new members experienced what defeat and victory meant. Coach Swemba was very pleased about how much the team improved throughout the season.

At the end of the season Cathrine Castaldi got the honor of being the Most Valuable Player and Sarah Pearce the Most Improved Player.

1. Beckey Whitmeyer gets the ball for the Lions.
2. Cathy Castaldi charges for the ball.
3. Gina follows the ball.
4. The Lions take it down field for a goal.

Boys Dribble Their Way Up There!

The Boy's JV and Soph/Frosh Basketball teams had a pretty outstanding season. They strived hard and worked on Saturdays to improve on their skills and their capabilities.

Game days were on Tuesdays and Thursdays, so the rest of the time they practiced long and hard.

Players accredited to trying their hardest and giving their all were Danny Wong, Don Petka and Gary Blakesly.

Soph/Frosh players worked very hard along with the other teams. Outstanding players were Tom Nicolai, Al Kahn, and Bobby Goode.

Coaches Basquera and Bishop are proud of the teams this year and have high hopes for next year!

1. Giving a pep talk to the guys at half-time is Coach Basquera.
2. Scoring for the Lions is Al Kahn.

6. Al Kahn takes a shot.

Girls Give It Their Best Shot!

Throughout the Basketball season, the girls team gave it their best shot. The girls worked hard all season under the supervision of Coach Mike Dodd, Coach Dixon, and Coach DeMase.

Varsity starters that gave the other teams what-for were Diane Watson and Jill Guthrie. Tough JV players were Gail Guthrie, Stacey Schlange and Connie Watson.

The toughest game was against Edison 52-50. The most victorious games were against Newport Harbor, Fountain Valley, and Huntington Beach.

Coach Dodd is looking forward to a lot of Varsity returners for next year.

1. Marian Meade takes a shot during a pre-game practice.
2. Top Row—B. Fossum, D. Eastin, C. Kienast, Co-Captain J. Guthrie, D. Watson, Front Row—Co-Captain K. Takanaga, C. Otto, P. Huseeth, C. Takai.

Girl's Sports Make It Big

In the past years participation in Girl's Sports has been very few. But this year it has all changed.

Girls have become more active in all phases of life and society. Sports is one field that girls have shot for and have excelled.

This is one way in which the girls find a way to express themselves, and they do a pretty good job of it too! "Girls can do anything!"

1. The Girl's Volleyball Team made it to the CIF play-offs, and finished 3rd.
2. Girls like to participate in pep rallies too, to express their spirit!
3. Track is also another sport which girls enjoy.
4. Tennis is a favorite of Laurie Moore.
5. Polly Parker has played tennis not because it is mandatory but because she loves to play!

Track Gets It Together!

The Track season started with great success. They had many prospects for long distance runners, but were short on sprinters.

The best distance runners were Alice Balandran, Laura McCrackin, and Jackie Rubio. Sprinters, or short fast distance runners were Laura McCrackin and Debbie Sterner, running with them also were Carol Diaz and Shirley Collins.

They are looking forward to an exceptional season this year.

1. Shirley Collins, Alice Balandran and Cathy Camire run the 4 miles together.
2. Coach Vargas gives the girls their time for the 400.
3. The girls are exhausted after a long hard practice.
4. Patti Fredrickson gets ready to throw the shot put.
5. Debbie Sterner and Carol Diaz share a few friendly words before practice.
6. Laura McCrackin wins the heat for the Lions.
7. Jackie Rubio finishes up her 2 mile run.

Gymnastics Flip to Victory

Gymnastics has been an exciting part of our school's athletics. Coaches Fred Marquez and Elizabeth Holy have brought both boys and girls gymnastics to many victories.

The boys had to suffer the loss of Coach Crawford second semester because he was offered a better job as an engineer; but Coach Marquez did an excellent job of taking over as head coach. The team possessed a vast amount of spirit.

The most outstanding people were Mike Douglas, Keith Adler, Don Gentile and Ruben Felix.

For the girls Diane Kohler dominated in all four events as all around. Linda Carr and April Thompson performed superb routines on beam and Dona Felix on the uneven parallel bars. All in all throughout the year both teams did excellent jobs and we were very proud of their performances.

1. Mike Douglas and Eric Yakura show flexibility and strength.

3. FRONT ROW: Diane Kohler, Dana Haskin, Tracey Shortsleeve, April Thompson, Steve Loeffler, Linda Carr, Donna Felix, Shelly Madsen, Staci Bradford. MIDDLE ROW: Andrea Schuck, Kathleen Coughlin, Carrie Carlson, Donna St. Jean, Tammy Raiton, Lisa Jordan, Stephanie Held, Julie Putman, Shawn Boeker, Melody McLane, Debbie Welch, Holly Rider. TOP ROW: Brandi Robbins, Michelle Dubois, Annette Gladney, Denise Hribar, Rhonda Baker, Susan Sato, Sharon Kiriara, Maria Sulsona, Sloan Schaffer, Kristin Miller, Kyla Vawter, Laurie Bedford

4. Linda Carr shows form and grace on the beam.

5. Jeff Yanez holds a "planche" with ease.

6. Tracey Shortsleeve demonstrates accuracy catching the high bar on the uneven parallels.

7. Holding an "L" on the parallel bars, Glenn Sato makes it look easy.

Athletes Excite The Fans

Athletics is a major part of Westminster's pride. Over the years, the Lions have grown to dominate in many forms of sport and have come to achieve many C.I.F. championships.

The sports at W.H.S. have meant a lot to those who've participated in them. During competition, it has aroused their spirits as well as the spirits of the fans who give them support. For the athletes, it was worth the everyday tiring workouts. Although they've suffered, they developed Westminster's reputation in becoming a constant threat to all other schools in the district.

To the students, athletics has brought a form of individual accomplishment to go along with their academic achievements.

1. Soccer has been one of the most popular sports next to football.
2. Basketball was one of the sports Westminster excelled in.
3. Freshman Football attracted crowds of all kinds.
4. Water Polo made CIF this year for the first time in 8 years!
5. The Varsity Defensive line did an exceptional job this year!
6. Basketball games always draw big crowds.
7. The greatest night in Football history is Dad's night, when the guys get to show off their Dads.
8. Of course there are always the thrilling moments in WHS' Sports History!!!

Badminton Nets A Good Season

The Lions Varsity Badminton Team was on their way to CIF. Miss Pitcher has 16 returning players and 14 new players added to her outstanding team. The new players are definitely CIF hopefuls.

The returning players consist of 8 mixed doubles, 8 returning doubles and 5 returning singles. Some of the returning players held two positions on the team.

The team practiced everyday to improve their skills. The new players had to work on their skills. They played 9 league games and won every one. Here's to a great season!

1. The badminton team listens intensely as Mrs. Pitcher talks to them.
2. Lorraine Beza, Carrie Baker and Sherri Tanabi wait in line for their pictures to be taken.
3. Marty Yee talks to a team member before a tournament.
4. Top: Coach Casey, T. Ngo, P. Frias, T. Supranovich, N. Gout, B. Turney, D. Soler.
5. A. Austin, K. Ramsey.
6. Top: T. Ngo, J. Smilty, D. Launge, N. Cooper, D. Soler, Coach Doris Pticher. Front Row: M. Duong, B. Turney, A. Mulherin, A. Choy, M. Garcia.

Varsity Swimming Makes A Big Splash

The Lion's Boys Swim Teams opened the season with great expectations.

The long hours of hard practice were seen in their performances. Practice this year started at 5:00 a.m. until first period, then after school from 2:00 until 4:00.

Under the coaching of Rob Haber, they strived to be number one in Sunset League!

1. J. Pace, S. Engedal, M. Wilson, R. Gates.
2. There are always spectators at the Swim Meets.
3. Diving into the pool is Mike Sores.
4. The Varsity Team begins their warmups before a game.

JV and Soph/Frosh Swim To Win

The Junior Varsity Swim team did an excellent job swimming this year.

Coach Rob Haber had some very good swimmers to work with.

The JV and Soph/Frosh teams early morning workouts and after school practices built up their endurance as well as their stamina.

1. Getting ready for the Swim Meet is the Junior Varsity Swim team!
2. A Lion swimmer finishes his laps around the pool.
3. Diving into the pool is Craig Nayden, Ted Takai and Scott Engedol.
4. T. Vu, P. Burke, M. Acuna, K. Marsh, D. Diaz, D. Neugebauer, T. Takai, M. Sores, and C. Nayden.

Swimmers Make Waves

With great expectations, the Lion's Girls Varsity Swim Team opened up a great '81 season.

Led by Sharon Van Dorn and Karen Dungey, the team looked forward to the possibility of reaching CIF. The team relied greatly on their skill and sportsmanship to help them achieve their goal.

The hard work and long hours made this girls' team something that can set an example for future Lion teams.

1. Making a big splash for the Lion's is Karen Dungey and Joni McWilliams.

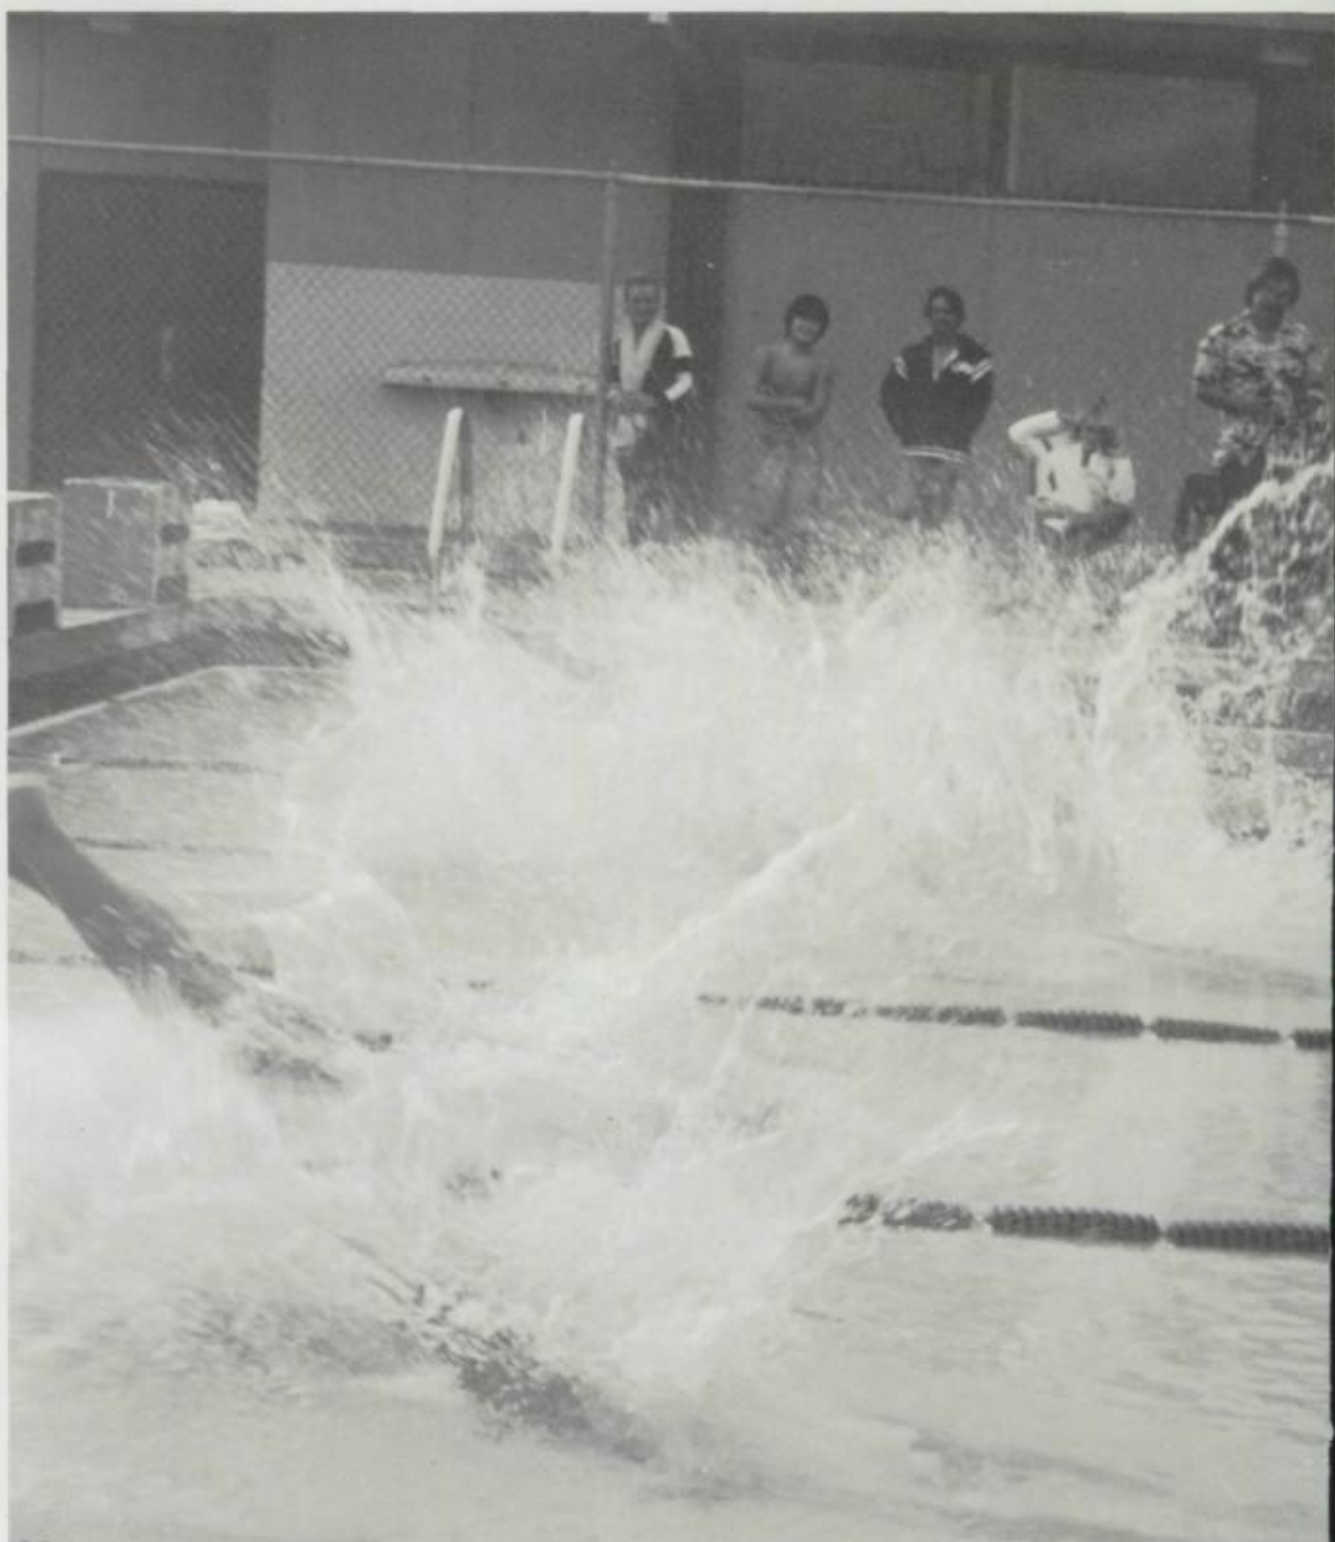

2. Preparing to dive into the pool are Gayle Milloy, Sharon Van Dorn and Shannon Stevens.

3. Winning the heat for the Lions is Karen Dungey.

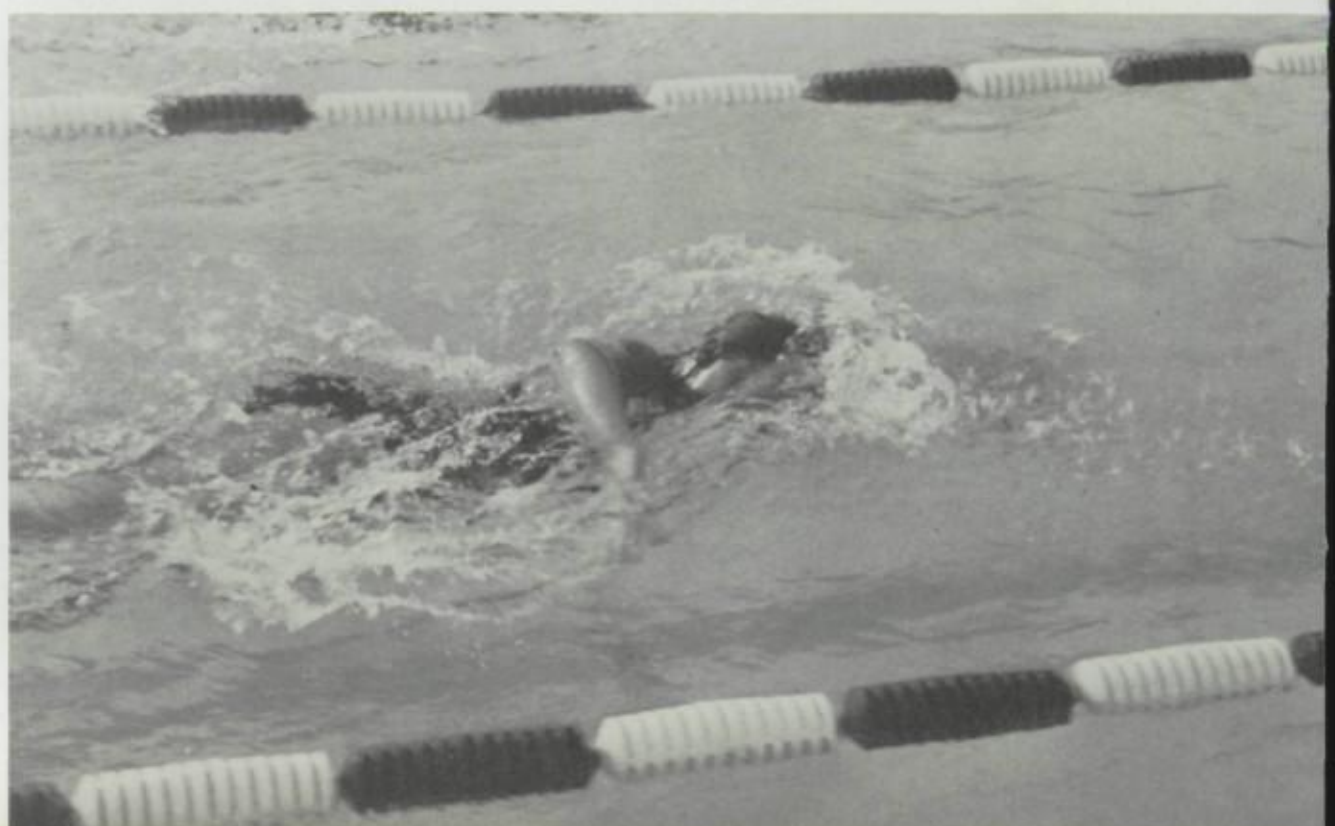

4. A Lion Swimmer finishes her laps.

Varsity Baseball Is Home Free

The Baseball season for the Lions looked to be one of the most promising.

Under the Coaching of Mr. DeWenter the team practiced hard, working on the various skills needed to compete in Sunset League.

There were no major injuries during the spring training so Coach DeWenter feels that the rest of the season will be nothing but prosperous for the Mighty Lions!

1. Steve Betz prepares to pitch the ball.
2. Ron Harriman catches the ball and sends it to first base.
3. Jim Dunk hits a homer.
4. Bobby Goode backs up Reuben Maciel at second base.
5. Tom Nicoli gets a runner out at first.
6. Ron Harriman runs towards the ball to make another outstanding play for the Lions.

Junior Varsity Is In To Win

Following in the Varsity's footsteps was the Junior Varsity Baseball Team. The season started rather slow, but after a few pre-season games their averages picked up.

A few of the most outstanding players were Reuben Maciel, Steve Betz and Jim Dunk. The other players all did a super job.

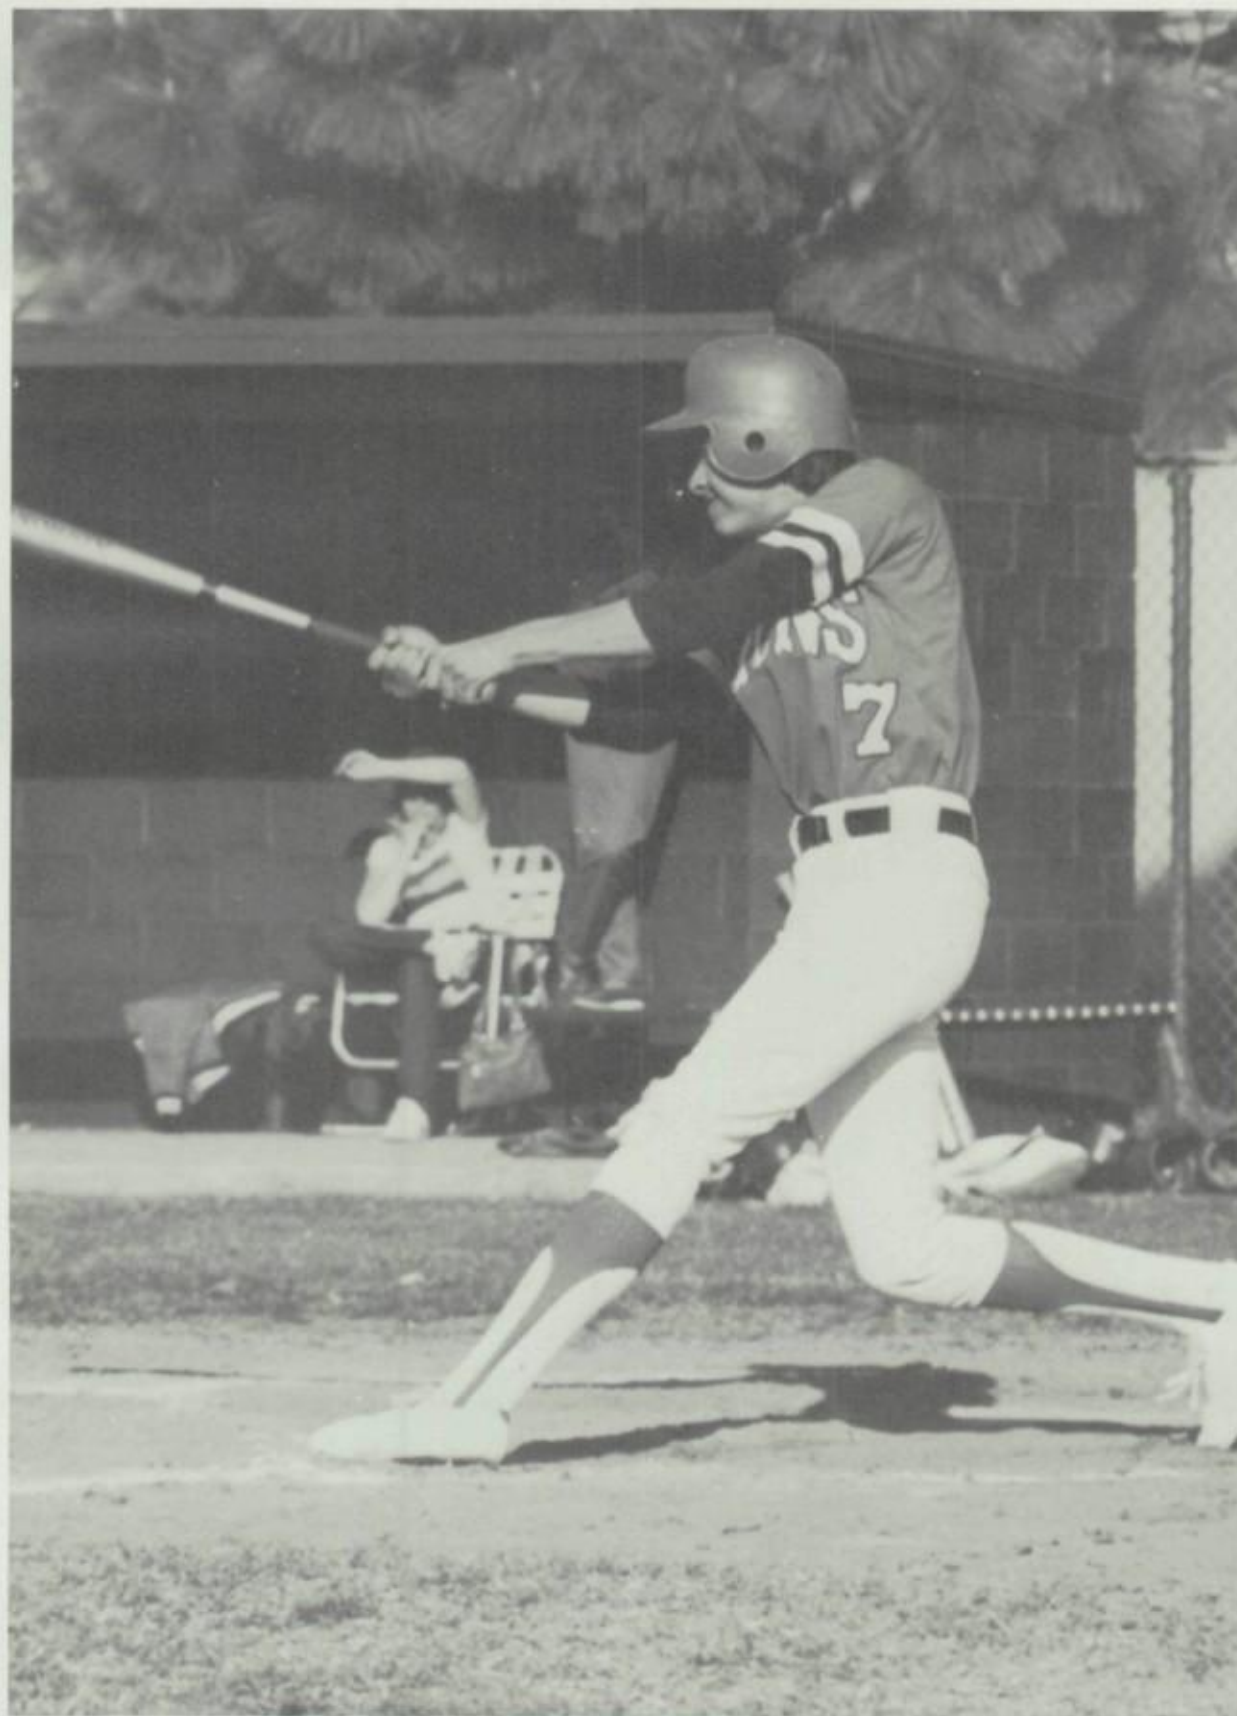

1. Steve Betz keeps an eye on the player at first.
2. Tom Nicloi puts the player from Lakewood out of the inning.
3. Louis Villegas hits a homerun for the Mighty Lions.
4. Jim Dunk gets a player out at Home Plate!
5. Steve Betz gives this pitch his all.
6. Showing he won't move for nobody is Jim Dunk.

Softball Slides To Base

Softball began the season early with try-outs lasting almost three weeks. The outlook of the team for this season was good. For the first week or so of the season the girls were finishing up their other sports like Field Hockey, Soccer and Basketball, which made it difficult to form the Softball teams.

The JV and Varsity teams, coached by Coach Smith, were strong at all positions and all skills. The Lion's Girls Softball teams showed aggressiveness and the urge to win during all games and practices.

1. Lisa Belkin is nursing a game injured elbow.
2. Debbie Frechette and Lisa Belkin go over previous score sheets.
3. JV Pitcher, Julie Melvin, warms up before the game.
4. Waiting patiently for the bus is Coach Penny Smith.
5. Going over the line up is Donna Sibley, Donna King, and Diane Stevens.

Tracksters Leap Many Hurdles

Led by returning lettermen Rich Vela, Randy Rhode, Jeff Compton, Joel Rodgers, Ken Ellingboe, Nelson Soler, and Dann Herron, Varsity Track got off to a strong start behind new head Coach Pascoe.

The team worked well together and showed a promising future.

1. Running for the team is Steve Washbon.
2. Taking the long jump is Steve Smith.
3. FRONT ROW: D. Ruppricht, E. Ogawa, J. Trani, B. Smith, J. Rodgers, C. Politao, D. Huddleston. TOP ROW: S. Washbon, H. Campbell, S. Pau, D. Herron, A. Tristin, N. Soler, R. Bennett, A. Riggins, R. Huddleston, E. Berg, A. Tana Tananuu.
4. Nelson Soler shows what he thinks of the team.
5. Putting the shot is Carmine Polito.

Tracksters Put Best Foot Forward

The Junior Varsity Track Team overcame many hurdles this year. The first few weeks of practice were drenched by rain, which made the track too wet to run on. Another "hurdle" was the fact that the uniforms were terribly late.

In spite of it all, the team kept running with their spirits high.

They did a commendable job and many of the Junior Varsity players will be excellent prospects for next year!

1. Running for the Lions are Reggie Bennett and Alfred Tananuu.
2. Top—D. Polito, M. Dubinka, S. Washbon, B. Rugoff, N. Barcera, R. Funke, M. Campbell, M. Kelley, L. Servin, E. Diaz, B. Corn, S. Ruzek, B. Romswinkle, D. Bertlesen, P. Wood, K. Jolly, A. Fergusen, J. Morin, C. Mayden, T. Takai, J. Portillo.

Tennis Team is a Smash

Although declining participation has hurt the tennis team in recent years, the team came back strong this year with many new players. The Varsity squad consisted of almost all JV and S/F players from last year. Some of these returning players were; Steve Evans, Gerry Franco, Doug Haines, Kendall Hastings, Eddy Horn, Brian Kellehar, Richard Kosai, Dennis Lefevre and John Popa. Phil Jones also made the Varsity squad, though he did not play previously.

With Coach Sherilyn Marston to show the way, the Lions enjoyed a successful and productive season.

1. John Popa, Denise LeFevre, Doug Haines, Steve Evans, Varsity Doubles practice volleys.
2. Kendall Hastings prepares to return the serve.
3. Brian Kellehar shows us one of his powerful serves.
4. Varsity Tennis Top Row Asst. Coach R. Ryan, G. Franco, B. Kellehar, R. Kosai, D. Haines, K. Hastings, Head Coach Sheri Marston. Front Row; P. Jones, S. Evans, J. Popa, E. Horn, D. LeFevre.
5. Richard Kosai demonstrates top spin forehand.

JV Tennis Gets into the Swing of Things

Added pressure for improvement was put on the Junior Varsity squad this year with only two varsity players returning next year. Coaches Don Felt and Rob Ryan, overseen by Varsity coach Sherilyn Marston, were hard put to chose a JV squad from the 24 players that tried out. With the elimination of the Soph/Frosh team, the JV team was expanded to include all players who did not make the Varsity squad. The starting JV team consisted of the following; Perry Engel, Gumer Garcia, Ray Gonzalez, Jeff Soriano, Jesse Telles, Robert Norton, Ron Guilliume, Robert Uyebara and Quan Vu.

1. Waiting anxiously to return the ball are Steve Evans and Doug Haines.
2. Showing off his backhand is Varsity player Phil Jones.
3. After a strong forehand swing is Varsity player, Brian Kellahan.
4. In spite of his broken ankle, Assistant Coach Bob Ryan oversees the team.
5. Front row: R. Guillaume, P. Engel, R. Gonzales, J. Soriano, T. Harp, D. Hartman. Back row: R. Uyebara, G. Umersino, P. Wolfgang, L. Huynh, T. Will, L. Nguyen, S. Emmons.

Golf Team Up To Par

With the coaching of Bill Boswell the golf team had a remarkable year. Five returning players and three new players made up the team. Because there are no seniors on the team, next year should prove to be exceedingly successful. Bill Boswell was quoted as saying, "this year is a building year." Jeff Amaparano, captain, Mike Fox and Jim Fox were some of the stronger players the team could boast of.

Coaching Is Not What It Used To Be!

In the past years the student's participation in Physical Education had declined unfavorably.

The coaches feel that the students just aren't interested anymore. The only ones that care, are the ones on the Athletic teams.

Fred Marquez feels that; "The students are just giving up, they don't care about participating or their physical appearance."

It isn't the coaches fault, they enjoy coaching P.E. but the students just don't care. Maybe next year and in the years to come, students will be looking forward to going out to P.E. and giving their 100%!

1. Coach Swemba gives Robing Schmal some pointers during a Field Hockey Game.
2. Mrs. Baie looks up from her roll chart.
3. Coach Waters is just thrilled about teaching girls P.E.

Dona Ryan Shines With School Spirit

The "Lion Spirit" is something that we have been proud of for many years. Dona Ryan is a perfect example of a student with that spirit. For this reason and many others, Dona was one of the most popular and best-liked girls on campus this past year. Dona has exhibited much of this spirit in her sports participation. She played on the Girls Varsity Tennis Team and was also successful as a field hockey player. As Sophomore President, Minister of Social Affairs, and finally, Sr. Class Vice Pres., she worked hard to promote school spirit and student participation. Dona was the Entertainment Director for the very successful Senior Luau and also helped with the Homecoming decorations. To fill her spare time and earn money, Dona worked part time at a fast food restaurant. She has not decided where she will attend college, but she hopes to work as an airline attendant where she can help make life more enjoyable for everyone.

Mixed Emotions on Women in War

Women have been involved in many equal rights fights. One in which they backed down and the men took the offensive was the issue of the draft of women. Women were not included in the draft, and feelings on campus were mixed towards the issue.

"I think women should be drafted. They should help their country in any way they can, even if not on the battlefield."

Randy Gates Swims to Victory

One of Westminster High School's top athletes graduating with the Class of 1981 is Randy Gates. While maintaining a grade point average of 3.0, Randy has earned himself recognition as a superior swimmer while on the Water Polo and Swim Team. He has won the Junior Olympics, was awarded the honor of being appointed to the All Sunset League Water Polo Team, and was nominated for the Most Athletic Boy in his Junior year. Randy was very popular with his peers, being voted Friendliest Boy his Junior and Senior years, the Senior Luau King, and being one of the Homecoming Court escorts. Randy likes people and hopes to attend college on a swimming scholarship and pursue a career in Sports Medicine.

John Hassapis Excels Nation-wide in Academics

"Westminster High School students are high-spirited and very active," states senior John Hassapis. After attending Westminster for only two years, John gives this reason for his increased participation in school activities and student body government his senior year. John honored our school by achieving finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Test. In trying to promote activities at Westminster, John worked on the Committee for Goals and was a representative to the Board of Trustees. His 3.4 grade point average has earned him a membership in the California Scholarship Federation. Further participation on John's part gained him the position of Vice-President. As president of French Club his senior year, John helped to increase membership. John plans on majoring in Political Science while attending Berkeley, hoping to become a lawyer.

Michael Lodge Earns Straight A's

Few people today can claim as many accomplishments as Westminster's own Michael Lodge. Mike boasted a 4.0 grade average and received many honors throughout his high school career. Among these was Mike's attendance at the Royal Banquet annually. As president of the California Scholastic Federation he promoted fund-raisers and activities in an effort to increase participation and attendance. To prove that he had the "Lion spirit" Mike also wrestled successfully for three years and was active in class competition in his senior year. Mike will major in chemistry and he hopes to attend the United States Coast Guard Academy.

Class of '81 First to Face New Requirements

New requirements often help students in their learning process. When the Class of '81 was asked to fulfill certain objectives, such as health, fine arts, and the proficiency exam, there was sure to be some mixed feelings.

"I don't think health should be required if you are taking an advanced course such as physiology."

Marianne Miyada

"They are good requirements to try and improve the standards of teaching, but it would have been nice if they were put into effect next year."

Joe Adams

"I think all the requirements are really good because they help the student become more well-rounded. They expose the student to subjects they normally would not come across."

"The requirements are a waste of time. Some students do not have ample time in their schedule to take remedial classes such as health and practical arts."

Karen Ivener Triumphs in a Multitude of Activities

Karen Ivener was one of Westminster High School's most spirited students, being involved in activities ranging from Minister of Clubs and Assemblies in the House of Lords to Social Chairman of Interact. She was also active in Ski Club, California Scholarship Federation, and Foxy Frolics. Participation in school activities was not a new thing for Karen. In her Sophomore year, she was active as Editor of our newspaper, The Scroll, and received a medallion at the Royal Banquet for her efforts. The next year she was Junior Class Commissioner, participated in the Drill Team, and was selected to be an Honor Guard at the 1980 graduation ceremony. Her efforts were finally recognized when she was given the Student of the Month Award for the month of October in her senior year. Karen plans to attend Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo where she will major in business administration.

Spirit Skyrockets at School

Spirit is always a major topic around campus; this year was no exception. Spirit was exhibited in many forms including class competitions, pep rallies, and large crowds at football games.

"Spirit is at an all-time high. As long as I have been at this school, I have never seen so much enthusiasm."

Karen Ivener

"We have the best spirit in Sunset League."

John Hassapis

"Just a few people in this school have spirit. Fortunately, it's good enough to make up for those who don't."

Michael Arnold

"Sophomores and Seniors had the most spirit this year."

Leona Flores

"Our pride in our team was shown by our high spirited cheers."

Do You Know Where the Seniors Are?

"Ditch Day" has always been a tradition among graduating seniors at schools throughout the district. Although administrators repeatedly objected to it because of the substantial financial loss, year after year up to 700 Lion upperclassmen migrate to a predetermined destination.

"It's to be expected, of course. It's a tradition and you can't do away with tradition."

Fred Knehans

"I think that their objection is really absurd; we are going to have it anyway."

Dion Marinkovich

"It wouldn't be your senior year without Senior Ditch Day. It would be like a year with no Sr. Luau. It's a tradition!"

Patti Gressman

"The seniors would be very disappointed if the administration took away one of the activities that they look forward to their last year."

Albert Kuo Shows How to Achieve a 4.0 G.P.A.

One of Westminster High's most outstanding students was Albert Kuo. Albert was a semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholarship. While still holding a perfect 4.0 grade point average, he participated in extracurricular activities ranging from marching and jazz band to being president of the German Club. Albert was also active in CSF and MGM. Outside campus Albert gained status as an Eagle Scout in B.S.A. and even worked part time at McDonald's. With Engineering as his major, Albert hopes to attend Harvey Mudd College or Stanford.

Student Body Hails Football Team

Compared to other teams, our football team played spectacular in Sunset League competition. Being denied the opportunity to go to CIF play-offs ended the season in grim disappointment.

"We played really well this season. It's too bad we didn't make it to CIF."

Marianne Miyada

"The Varsity Football Team got off to a good start and finally ended up in a three-way tie for CIF, but, unfortunately we lost the toss and couldn't go."

Reggie Bennett

"The team played well, well enough to go to CIF. It's really a shame we couldn't go this year."

Michael Arnold

"The football team played with a lot of heart this year. The turning point of the season was the critical loss to Marina. We really should have beaten them."

Sharon Moore Achieves Semi- Finalist Honor on PSAT Test

Talent can be shown in many different ways, and Sharon Moore demonstrates her versatility with her scholastic achievements as well as her success in the field of art.

Sharon's academic efforts were rewarded when she scored high on the PSAT Test, being recognized as one of the five National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists attending Westminster High School.

2 Sharon has been involved with artistry for many years. She was active on the Mural Committee, submitted many art exhibits to a variety of art shows, and attended the Royal Banquet her Junior year, receiving the Leo in Art. She also participated in many school related clubs, including M.G.M., G.A.T.E., French Club, and the California Scholarship Federation. Sharon has also been involved in sports during her stay at WHS including soccer and tennis.

Future Plans Influenced by Friends and Relatives

College is a large step up from high school. Students are often influenced by close friends, relatives, and teachers. Sometimes these people help make difficult decisions easier. Often they don't help at all or make things more trying.

"I feel they've set the pace and helped me decide on what I'd like to be in the future by giving me my weak and strong points. This also helped me decide which field I'd like to go into."

Senior Memories Stir Controversy

The big controversy at the beginning of the year was whether or not to include senior memories. This sparked up many ill feelings towards the editors. It was said that it was too much hassle and that there was a fear of a liability lawsuit. Many students felt strongly about the subject.

"The conflict made it confusing and really hard to figure out what was going on."

Gail Testa

"I was really upset when they weren't going to do it, but I'm glad they changed it."

Linda Kraemer

"I think all the confusion was a waste of time. They should make up their mind."

Joe Thelander Directs Award Winning Band and Achieves Academic Honors

Most band members know the face of their student director, Joe Thelander, but would never imagine that he is also one of Westminster High School's top students. Among Joe's achievements are being one of the National Merit Scholarship Finalists, maintaining a 3.7 grade point average, and attending the Royal Banquet every year. Not only was Joe an outstanding scholar, he also participated in Varsity Baseball and Basketball. Joe has also been active in Marching and Jazz Band throughout high school. Joe has been a true asset to Westminster High School, and, upon graduation, he plans on attending the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado, majoring in Engineering.

Laura Johnson Stars in Hit Plays

Laura Johnson deserves recognition for the services she has done for the student body. Laura was responsible for much of the art work in extracurricular activities such as the Foxy Frolics and the Senior Luau. She was very active in the theatre arts and received much satisfaction from her participation in school plays. Among the plays are "Antigone" and "Midsummer's Night Dream." She also directed "Cabaret—A Twenties Revue" during her Junior year. Some of her honors received were Best Actress and Best Globe West Player. She also received a Leo award in Theatre Arts. Included in her achievements outside of theatre were a seat on the Site Council for two years and the opportunity to serve as an Honor Guard at the 1980 graduation ceremony. When Laura attends college, she will major in Drama and the Theatre Arts.

Students Question Need for Narks

Policing the campus has become an area of concern for students and administrators alike. This problem was taken into the hands of the administrators when they assigned 'narks' to keep control of our student body. Students tend to disagree with the administrators decisions.

—Lizz Allison

"No, I don't think it really helps."

—Lauren Chieco

"No, I think we can get along without them."

—Lee Ann Early

"I certainly don't need them around."

—Shawn Degraw

"Right now it doesn't look like they're doing much anyway. Maybe, if it were more apparent that they were doing something constructive."

—Linda Kraemer

"I think we need a few to keep vandalism and other stuff under control, but not as many as we have now."

—Karen Ivener

"No, I don't think the narks are necessary."

—Diane Webb

"we really don't need narks unless they have an important significance. Maybe to make sure we take care of our school, which is dumb, we should have enough pride to take care of it."

—Caroll Diaz

"No, I don't think we need them. I never see any around anyhow. So what are they doing."

—Kathy Hay

"I don't think that they're necessary because there isn't enough reason for them to be around, and they're just a waste of money."

Teachers Considered Fair Among Students

Teachers fair? Yes! This seems to be the general response among students. Tests? Yes, they're necessary. Discipline? Yes, it's also necessary. Going to class and learning is all part of one's daily routine.

"Yes, I feel they're as fair as possible," quotes Chuck Gramzella.

"Most of the teachers are, mine anyway," says Lynn Anderson.

Lee Afusia states, "Pretty much."

"They are as fair as a teacher with five classes, each containing thirty-five students can be," says an anonymous person.

Foreign Students Struggle for Acceptance

Social groups differ greatly in today's society. Learning to accept a race which is different from one's own is often difficult. This question was asked on campus, "Do you feel we, as a student body, accept the different social groups on our campus?"

"I think we accept the different social groups, but I don't think everyone likes them."

—Stacey Bradford

"We accept some of the people but not all of them. I think we should accept all."

—Ivy Butler

"I don't think we really accept all the different social groups. We just have to accept the fact that they are here to stay and there is nothing we can do about it."

—Patti Turner

"Not really, we really don't welcome new students as we should, and we down the foreigners instead of accepting them as they are."

To Smoke Or Not To Smoke

Smoking at school has become one of the many problems with students. Since smoking is not allowed at school, the students retreat to the bathrooms. If there were a smoking section at school, no one knows if this problem would subside. This question was posed to students on campus.

"No, I think that's ridiculous."

Chunk Granzella

"No, you shouldn't have people smoking on campus."

Lee Afusia

"If they want to smoke, let them do it some place else, not on our campus."

Pam Dray

"No, it would be defeating the purpose."

Lynn Anderson

"Yes, why not?"

Jim Tennyson

"Yes, I think we should."

Sophomores Earn "Class of the Year"

The "class of the year" for 1979-1980 returned to again prevail on campus, this time as sophomores. Class spirit was at an all time high, and sophomore participation skyrocketed.

Devoted students and class officers helped present the annual 'peasants Prom.' It was a great success with the theme, 'Western Hoe-down,' appropriately being chosen to accompany the upcoming cowboy fad.

As fundraising activities, the sophomores sold Christmas grams, held a car-wash over the summer, and sold popcorn, box lunches, and doughnuts during United Way Week.

Janet Whittenberg, the class advisor, said, "The Sophomore class is a very energetic and productive class."

This is obviously true as the class of '83 seems to be winning the race for the 'Class of the Year' award.

Pg. 210—Sophomore class officers, Alicia Coolich; representative, Naomi Toyama; commissioner, Lisa Kurata; secretary, Nora Vincent; president, Donna Mouglin; commissioner, Kim Sprouse; treasurer

Students Face School Again

Arriving at school after a three month vacation was often a worrisome and trouble-filled experience. Students and teachers alike dusted off their thinking caps, gearing up for the new season. As the "free flowing" days of summer came to an abrupt end, one can't help but feel penned up, even nervous on the first day.

"It felt great this year coming back as a junior. I felt more secure in my position at school and confident that there would be nothing I couldn't handle."

Jeannine Talkovic

"Disgusted—The idea of facing homework and especially the old cliques at our school (especially punk-rock groups) drove me crazy. One day a friend is urban cowboy—the next day they're punk or new-wave."

Anonymous

"I mostly felt scared because I didn't know anybody. But after every class, I met more and more people ... by the end of the day I felt good."

Sarah Pearce

"I felt slightly excited at seeing my old friends again and sad that sleeping late in the mornings is reserved for the weekends."

Joanne Goddard

"The first day was like me in a plain with millions of other daisies."

Brenda Coomes

Juniors Wait in Anticipation

Completing their junior year, the class of '82 waited in anticipation of the most exciting year in their high school career. Preparations for their senior year included varied fund raising activities and serious planning on their part. The juniors also sponsored the Jr./Sr. Prom. The class officers were: Sandra Bruce, President; Helen Miller, Vice President; Celeste Rodriguez, Secretary; Carrie Baker, Treasurer; Laura Kurata, Representative.

Frosh start Afresh

Starting out their first year in high school, the freshmen did a commendable job in coping with the pressure of secondary education. Although sometimes looked down upon by upperclassmen, the class of 84 realized that this was only a natural part of high school life. The class officers were: Kevin Stricklin, President; Laura Bonomo, Vice President; Rose Marie Dutcher, Secretary; Tami Cornell, Treasurer. Led by these officers, the freshmen class held many fund-raisers in preparation for their sophomore year.

Student Government Questioned

Leading the student body from a standard governmental seat was often a more difficult task than could be estimated. At times, crucial decisions had to be made on the spot. These young politicians often represented the school at district levels, where the problems tended to be more complex. They did their best to represent student and faculty alike in the vast spectrum of problem solving sessions they attended, although many students habitually disagreed.

"I think that spirit and pride depends on the people in the school, but the student government seems to be doing a good job."

Jean Kearns

"The student government is similar to our government—in a total state of chaos."

Anonymous

"I think the student government has been doing a great job of keeping spirit and pride high, but the students themselves are not getting involved . . . The ones that do participate are the same that participate everytime."

Joseph Sanderson

"I think student government is doing a great job! It's the students that go to the school who don't have any spirit!! If everyone had as much pride in our school as student government, cheerleaders, drill team, etc., we would have the best school around."

A Day In The Life Of A Freshman

Being a Freshman is tough. Just imagine the first day of school. You're in a new school with new people, new systems, and just a little bit scared.

First get up, get ready to go, and make it to your first class on time. Well, you've made it with the right books and everything is going smooth until ... lunch! The seniors attack!! You've just experienced your first inside view of a trash can and you can't find anywhere to hide. Finally, you get something to eat and head to your next class. In between classes you try for the restroom, the only problem being where you are situated, in the 'S' building. The only restrooms open are in the 'G' building and you end up being late to the next class. Then comes PE—the ultimate experience. People are snapping you with towels, they take your clothes, etc., etc. One more class and you're done. You end up with mounds of homework and are ready to collapse. But just when you were about to give up, you remember; someday you will be a senior and it will all have been worth it!

Junior Treasurer Upholds Office

Balancing a budget was the task at hand, and experience was the key to success. The Junior class was extremely indebted to the services of their treasurer, Carrie Baker. She performed the job well and even made it seem easy. Maybe this was because she had had past experience, including treasurer of the Sophomore class. She has also been involved in many other student government positions, ranging from a seat on the Freshman class council to being an active member of the newly developed House of Commons. Carrie proved to be a great asset to her class, willing to help the student body in any way she could and to promote school pride.

Students Express Preferences

Relationships between young men and women in high school have had a growing importance in the social scheme. When asked about how they chose a social partner, the students came up with varied opinions. Most of these teenagers felt that a good personality was the most important characteristic they looked for in a boyfriend or girlfriend. They also seemed to prefer tall people with a medium build. Strangely enough, brunettes were more popular than blondes.

Wizard of Oz Premiers as First Musical in a Decade

The drama department joined with the music department and the audio visual crew to produce the spring play, "The Wizard of Oz". Tryouts were held in December anticipating the long months of work ahead. The stars were Amy Day as Dorothy, Rodney Barbati as the scarecrow, Dorian Bolick as the Tinman, and Stuart Daylida as the Lion. Eleven more actors and a large chorus completed the cast.

Dancing and singing, well done sets of the city of Oz, the castle, and an electronic harmonizer to change voices of the Munchkins, added to the excellent acting to make the musical a great success.

Colich Enhances House of Lords

As the House of Lords representative for the Sophomore class, Alicia Colich was a very productive member. She voiced the opinion of her peers and often stood firm against many other House of Lords members' opinions. Of her many activities were band, Teps, House of Commons representative, and Peasants Prom coordinator. Along with the other House of Lords members, Alicia had a very successful year.

Underclass Speaks Up On Activities.

Much emphasis has been put on underclass participation in school activities, the students had their own opinions of which they liked best.

"Football has highlighted my year by giving me a challenge in the way of sports."
Rod Jones.

"I loved pep rallies and football games! People don't realize that school could be fun if they got into it and showed some pride in W.H.S."

Anonymous.

"Many of the pep rallies have highlighted my year. They were really funny and I was in stitches most of the time from boy cheerleaders dressed up as girls, dead people arising from a grave, and silly things like that."
Kathleen Gundling.

Cowboy Fad Affects Students

Dancing the two-step to Western tunes, and dressed in their best cowboy boots and hats, is what many students across the country have been doing these past months. Students have spent millions of dollars on expensive cowboy boots, western shirts, blue jeans, and the ever popular cowboy hat, with extra dollars spent on feathers and feather bands.

"The cowboy fad—a total abomination and destructive device used to twist and mutilate students' minds."

Anonymous

"It's great. I love the "down to earth" western look. It's really natural, a good gorge away from all the bright gaudy clothing from last year."

Anonymous

"The cowboy fad is very inappropriate for a highly domesticated school such as ours."

  3. Mr. DeWinter looks upon Cathy Burke and Daena Fischer as they examine a specimen.
  4. Chris Neiswonger talks to Mrs. Santa Cruz as she demonstrates the proper way to prepare food.

Dr. Lee Eastwood Takes The Reins

Dr. Lee Eastwood was named the new principal at Westminster High. He could be seen out on campus chatting with faculty and students alike. His twelve years of experience enabled him to realize the importance of communication between students, staff, and parents. Dr. Eastwood stressed that academics, athletics, and activities were the three significant contributing factors for an educational environment, and a successful high school experience.

He became involved and showed that he was proud and loyal to the school he headed. Everyone should take off their ten-gallon hats in recognition for Dr. Eastwood in his sincere dedication in helping WHS and its student body achieve their goals.

1. Dr. Eastwood is trying to figure out why Susan Thieben is doing her homework the hard way.
2. Dr. Eastwood puts confidence into an unbelieving student.

New Sheriffs and Deputies Take Over

Along with a new principal, WHS had a new assistant principal of instructional services, Mr. Ken Friess. Friess transferred from FVHS after 11 years as a government teacher and the department chairman of special education. He felt, though, that this school had a reputation that wasn't as positive as it should be.

Frank Infusino was another new assistant principal. He was in charge of student services. Formerly the dean of discipline at OVHS, Infusino believed that if the different ethnic groups intermingled, the racial problems would drop considerably. He believed in a strict policy, which meant no radios, skateboards, cassettes, or drugs on campus, or being late for class.

Shirley Pyle, dean of supervision, worked throughout the year assisting Frank Infusino. While enforcing all the old school rules, she could be seen walking around campus meeting students she would never meet in her office. Pyle was not new here; last year she served as Program Manager for the Title IV Indian Program.

Noontime activities, pep rallies, school functions, even graduation would not have run smoothly if it weren't for Barbara Atwood, Activities Director. She has been WHS' Activities Director since 1961. There's nothing that Miss Atwood couldn't have handled. She has had plenty of experience helping high school students plan activities.

Bill Blankinship was the assistant principal of guidance. He kept in contact with the counselors; and was in charge of students in general. He talked with parents of students who needed to discuss their graduation problems.

Attendance coordinator, Rosemarie Whitworth worked many hours in her office. She made sure that the night callers who called parents concerning absences kept up their job. She conferenced with parents of habitually truant students.

Counselors Pulled it Together for Students

Arnold Alvarez, Gary Grebbien, Ken McCluskey, Marc Orlando, Marilyn Pascoe, Bertha Tostado, Eleanor Wechsler, and Mary Dibs were the counselors for the '80-'81 school year. Al Stevens was the school's psychologist. Year-round these counselors were available by appointment to discuss credits, college entrance exams, or anything related to school or college. Also, many of these counselors were available to discuss personal problems related to family or friends. The counselors tried and did their best to make sure every student was happy with his schedule, and tried especially to help students decide in what general direction their future lay. Mr. Grebbien, one of the counselors, was constantly getting students, especially seniors, interested in the Service. He made information and tests available. Generally, the entire counseling staff did a great job assisting students.

Psychologist, Mr. Al Stevens, also did an excellent job in assisting students. His caring nature put students at ease when they brought their problems to him. His private office located in the library was a cheery place just like the psychologist himself.

New Requirements a "Must" for a Graduating Class

Standardized tests were proof that some students were incompetent in the basic skills of English. This all had to change, however, because of a new law that stated that beginning with the Class of '81, students must show a competency in standard subjects such as English. No longer did high school seniors receive a diploma even if they accumulated the required amount of credits.

English classes such as reading and writing labs were available to students who needed to brush up on their skills. These classes proved to be beneficial when proficiency testing arrived. Elective courses that students were able to take after learning the basics included: Creative Writing, Bible as Literature, Short Story, Grammar Review, and College Composition, to name a few. These interesting classes continued to stimulate students' minds and advance their knowledge of English in an enjoyable manner.

With the help of a dedicated staff, most seniors learned the basic fundamentals of English and were able to pass the required tests. They were able to receive their high school diploma and participate in their graduation ceremonies.

1. Eric Yakura finds Mrs. Kiefer's explanations funny.
2. Mrs. Erdman can't seem to hold in her laugh from one of her student's comments.
3. Mrs. Dorman shows Tuan Nguyen the meaning of a different word in foreign language.
4. Jerry Dalton finds that Mrs. Hauth can proofread better than he can.
5. Ms. Martone has something interesting for students in an Elvis-permeated room.

Students Discovered a New Aspect in Math

Throughout the year, many students found themselves exploring many different areas where math could be applied, whether it was in one of the basic courses or in an advanced course such as Math Analysis. Every topic learned in the math classes could be applied to every day practices. At times it might have been somewhat difficult for a student to understand exactly what was going on, but many teachers did their best to help the student comprehend the problem or just let the student try to search out the problem by finding the answers himself.

Basic Math, Algebra, Geometry, Algebra II, Trigonometry, Probability and Statistics, and Math Analysis; these were the classes students took to further increase their knowledge in the concrete and abstract forms of measurement. At times a student could have questioned a teacher whether out of curiosity, or out of sheer frustration of how something difficult to understand could be used for something in a latter day, but eventually time elapsed and the meaning became somewhat clearer. All classes taken basic or advanced, benefited the students for vocational or college preparatory work.

1. Mr. Green explains to one of his students the answer to an involved math problem.
2. Wendy Simpson gets more explanation from Mrs. Beck.
3. Mr. Stevens shows two students how to scale the grades for a test he gave.
4. Mr. Wilson doesn't appear to notice one of his students stealing the show.
5. Mr. Tolleson emphasizes that "22" is the answer.

Students Express Themselves Through Art

To have talent is special, but to put it to use makes it an art. Many students found that they could express themselves artistically and creatively through one of their elective classes in the area they perform best.

Our school offered classes in the practical and fine arts. In the practical or vocational department, one could have taken a class such as home economics, auto care and maintenance, drafting, woodshop and metal. The classes did not apply to one elite group of people or one of the two sexes. Girls found that they could take classes like auto care and maintenance or drafting; classes no one would have imagined a girl to take in the fifties or sixties. Boys could take classes in home economics which would include: foods, clothing, marriage and contemporary life, etc. In either case, students took the class they felt they would like or needed.

In the fine arts department, students could have taken a class in which they worked with clay and pottery, paintings of all types, and sculpturing. They could have also taken a class involving the study of a certain culture such as the Chinese arts.

The requirement to take either practical or fine arts was one year. Although there was a budget cut-back this year, students found that they didn't have to feel limited and could take the class or classes they feel they could learn to express themselves in their own way.

1. Mike Loving listens to what his teacher has to say.
2. Jennifer Monroe assisted by Mr. Agcaoili as she mixes poster paints.
3. Mrs. Riness smiles with a smug look as her girls eat what they learned to cook.
4. Mr. Deeley shows his students that wiring is complicated.
5. Meriwhether must believe in ERA as she listens intently to Mr. Atterbury.

Social Studies Involved All Students

Social Studies covers a large area of academics. At our school, it was required that a student take three years of credits in classes involving this field. In the freshman year, it was geography and Introduction to Social Studies, in the sophomore year, it was world history; in the junior year—American Studies, and as a senior, it was US Government. If the student wanted to take different classes of social studies, he or she could have taken a humanities class such as Social Psychology or Psychology itself. In these classes, human behavior was studied through peoples' actions and their minds.

The classes prepared students for their future. It not only gave them knowledge of the world and what peoples' cultures are like in different countries, but the students learned about the individual characteristics of people; the way they live and how they respond to situations. The classes educated students in many areas so that if they were to continue their education through college, they found that there would be a wide selection to major in.

Science, Not Just a Basic for Students

" $E=MC^2$ " a familiar formula in science, but science is much more involved than that; it covers a great deal of knowledge. Throughout the four years at WHS, the requirement for science was one year, this could have been accomplished by taking one semester of physical and one semester of life science. Physiology, physics, chemistry, and AP were some of the more advanced classes students could choose to go into. Basic physical science, physical science, and life science, were classes students could take to start-off.

Many hours had to be put into a class and special attention had to be placed in this area. There are many minute details that could be easily complicated if they weren't given much attention. Many times was the procedure; purpose, plan, data, and conclusion used by students to find and prove the answer to a fact.

Science classes covered areas such as; weather, geographical aspects of the earth, chemicals, animal and plant life, human bodies, etc. Once a student took a science class, he found that there is no end; one certain area of science can be studied for many years, but new things are continuously discovered or changes occur.

The science program prepared students who were going to college. It gave them basic and advanced knowledge to help them understand the bottom basics to fields that will never be fully researched and completely known.

1. "I wonder if I'll look like that after I die?" Mrs. Carroll may be wondering.
2. Ms. Jutta Tinder often helped out the science classes, and worked long hours.
3. Fred Knehans and Mr. Dewenter carefully dissect a piglet as Mike Krumme eagerly watches the process.
4. Mr. Pacelli is right in the middle of explaining an important concept in physical science.

Teachers Express Opinions and Give Advice

1. What are your particular idiosyncracies?

"Watch-it, Bucko, I have none." Ms. Swenson

"Must have all lessons planned and detailed. (Some of my students are probably rolling on the ground laughing.)" Mr. Matta

2. What advice would you give to students leaving high school?

"Recognize life's choices, examine alternatives and adapt to the changing tides of being human." Mr. Matza

"Never go into teaching." Mr. Johnston

"Never stop learning." Mrs. Forrest

"Go to Hawaii and never come back."

Anonymous

3. How do you relate to students in your classes?

"Well, strangely." Ms. Iverson

"I don't; they relate to me." Ms. Hauth

"I have ESP." Ms. Meriwether

4. How do you feel about school activities; do you like to participate in them yourself?

"Some activities are good for spirit and can form a homogeneous group from a collection of diverse groups, but too many activities means academic time lost." Ms. Yassine

"I think school activities really add to the high school experience, and I participate whenever I can." Mr. Lindquist

5. What are your opinions on the new graduation requirements? Does it affect your teaching in any way?

"I feel that unfortunately they are necessary, and wonder how we in education ever got placed in a position where students come to and leave high school lacking in their basic skills." Ms. Haukland

"Yes, I can now threaten students more effectively." Linda Erdman

"Should be increased and have more opportunities for electives." Mr. Whitman

1. Mr. Seitzinger claps to awaken his class.

2. I'm the teacher here," says Mr. Pacelli.

3. Mauri Newhouse may be able to take over her teacher's place as English teacher.

Special Education Assisted Students in Their Studies

Special Education had many teachers participating in a program that gave students a little more assistance in their studies. Denise Durant, Sharon Rawls, Polly Egbert, Jim Hemsley, Jim Keating, and Janice Mangels were the staff for Special Education. Debra Woodington was an OHI Counselor. She assisted many students in their studies also. She taught an adaptive P.E. class. Many of her students had weekly appointments to go over other class work. Every person involved in the Special Education classes put in much time to serve students with their needs.

1. Special Education teachers: Jim Keating, Jim Hemsley, Sharon Rawls, and many others all had a part in the course.
2. Debra Woodington discusses a student's paper assisting in special details.

3. Often discussions were held to get all involved.
4. Listening to a Special Education teacher is often relaxing for some students.
5. Many hours were put into planning and assisting students' needs.

Title Programs Reached Out to Many Students

Title I was an important program this year. There were many resource teachers whom students could go to and get help in their studies. Title I Counselor, Mary Dibs, supervised and trained several teachers for this job. Dr. Ruth Bachelor-Hall was the program manager of the Title I program.

Title IV was the Indian program. The Indian program consisted of cultural field trips, heritage searches and other cultural projects. Omer Whitman, Alma Rail, and Paul were a great help in organizing the Indian program.

Title VII was no longer the Spanish program. Federal funds for the program exhausted, consequently, bilingual classes were incorporated into regular programs. The Title VII program was made into another program for the Vietnamese.

All programs assisted students with special qualifications. The programs became beneficial for better learning and understanding.

1. The Title I office staff: Charleen Sorrell, Doris Harnish, and Joyce Hodak.
2. Title IV teachers and aides: Mel Goldberg, Lori Walton, Robert Good, and Alma Rail.
3. Part of the Title IV program is Bertha Mallory.
4. Nga Azuaje was head of the Title VII program.
5. Always ready to assist in a friendly manner for Title IV is Mr. Hayes.

People Behind the Scenes Work Hard

Nurse, Kathy Schwable, took many temperatures throughout the year. Her secretaries Massoni and Miyada helped a great deal keeping records and files together.

The many secretaries that Westminster's administration consisted of kept our school running smoothly.

Ethel Harris was the career guidance head. She helped students find out what they wanted to do after graduation. College and future planning were her concern. Kathy Munday, Anji Clemens, and Shirley Guffey were the other important career guidance staff. They helped students with work permits and getting jobs whether on campus or around the community.

The cafeteria staff tried their best to offer a decent lunch to the student body and staff.

School supervisors were a constant sight on campus. They helped enforce campus sweep and made sure no drugs or liquor were brought on campus.

STARS SHINE IN "THAT'S HOLLYWOOD"

A classic evening of excitement, honor, pride and tears of joy created "That's Hollywood", the theme for Homecoming 1980. The student body chose five students who were voted on their looks, personality, friendliness, and achievement.

The court included: Melody Couron, Jill Hofmann, a member of Varsity Flag and Medea, and off campus sorority, Bettina Membrilla, a Varsity Song girl, a member of Medea, and a participant of Foxy Frolics for three winning years. Karen Mueller was an active nominee. She was involved in activities such as field hockey, House of Lords, Medea, she was our Lion Mascot, and she was chosen to represent WHS in Girls State. Chosen as 1981 Homecoming Queen was Sonya Collier, a member of Varsity Field Hockey. It was a night filled with memories that no student could easily forget.

Gentlemen Received Honors at the Christmas Formal.

One of the most glamorous events held throughout the year was the Christmas formal held at the Anaheim Convention Center during the month of December. Pride and prestige were the feelings of many who were chosen as nominees for the Christmas Court.

The Court included Bill Corn and Randy Gates who were members of the Varsity Water Polo team; Brian Neville who was a participant on the Varsity Wrestling team; Todd Ruddell and Chunk Granzella distinguished themselves on the Varsity Football field. The voting took place in homeroom classes, and the student body chose Chunk Granzella as Christmas King for 1980.

Karen Ivener Excels as Student of the Year

The honor of Student of the Year was bestowed upon Karen Ivener. The Student of the Year was chosen from the twenty-two Students of the Month from September through June. Each student of the Month excelled in academic as well as extra-curricular activities and brought a 'brand new pride' to his parents, classmates, and school.

Karen's accomplishments proved her to be more than qualified for the envied title of Student of the Year. As Minister of Clubs and Assemblies in House of Lords, Karen chaired many committees including Pep Parade, United Way, Class Competitions, Valentine Coronation, Coronation Reception, and all assemblies.

In Interact Karen headed the Social Committee and was chairperson of new members and Homecoming corsages. In CSF she earned the title of Sealbearer. She still had time to be an active member of Ski Club and Teps, and maintain the noteworthy G.P.A. of 3.8. Karen Ivener represented the ideal student and deserved much recognition for her success.

Home of Scholars

With so much emphasis placed on athletics, it is sometimes difficult for above average students to make a name for themselves. For Michelle Ankeny, Steve Evans, Scott Jordan, Albert Kuo, Dennis Lefevre, and Michael Lodge, the time for recognition has arrived. These six people have achieved the highest award given for academic achievement. They are our valedictorians.

Students Bear The Seal of Honor

There is a select group of seniors, who, with hard work and dedication to study, have earned the status of Sealbearer. These students fully deserve the gold tassel that they wear during the graduation ceremonies. To be a Sealbearer, they must have qualified for membership in the California Federation for four of the six semesters in their Sophomore, Junior and Senior years. These outstanding students have earned the recognition of their parents and peers.

Flash! 17 Year Old Student is Elected as State Treasurer

"During the summer, I had the opportunity to represent my high school and my community as the 1980 Girls' State Representative. This week long event takes place in Sacramento. Throughout the week, the 560 girls involved had the opportunity to feel what it is like to participate in government.

I learned how to relate to other people on top of the educational aspect of the event. Our week was concluded with a trip to the State Capital where we met and talked to Governor Jerry Brown and his administration.

I only wish more people could be given the opportunity I was allowed to experience." These comments were submitted by Senior Karen Mueller who was chosen by the American Legion to represent Westminster High School. To her fellow students, the choice was obvious. Karen has been constantly noted for her many efforts in the classroom as well as outside in school related activities.

Editor: How has being chosen affected you in a general sense?

Karen: It has really made me more aware of governmental affairs.

Ed.: What stands out to you as the most memorable thing to have happened to you in your high school career?

Karen: Going to Girls State was a biggie. Also being chosen by the students for Homecoming Court. I'll never forget all the fun and excitement that that honor brought to me.

Supreme Court is Now in Session, Judge Bennet Will Preside.

Reggie Bennet was honored by his distinguished colleagues when he was elected as the Chief Justice in the Supreme Court. This situation did take place in Sacramento, but it was at the Boy State Conference. He was picked to go out of 27 applicants from this school. The event was held in the summer of 1980 at the Cal. State University campus in the capital city.

Editor: What does being Boy State mean to you?

Reggie: Boy State was a great honor and I enjoyed it. It was an experience I'll never forget. We set up our own government and as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court I was able to work in the actual chambers.

Ed.: Are you pursuing a career that is related to government?

Reggie: Yes it will, because I plan on majoring in Political Science and Law and becoming a lawyer. I may even consider running for a government office later on.

Ed.: To whom, if anybody, do you give credit to for helping you be successful?

Reggie: I give a lot of credit to both my family and Miss Atwood.

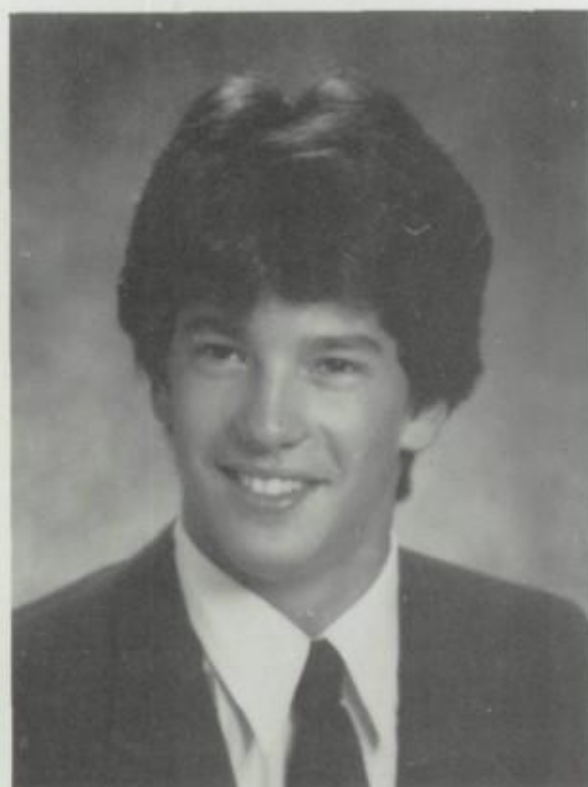

Reggie Bennett: Prime Minister

Janet Herkins: Chancellor

Daena Fischer: Minister of Records

Robin Schmal: Minister of Exchequer

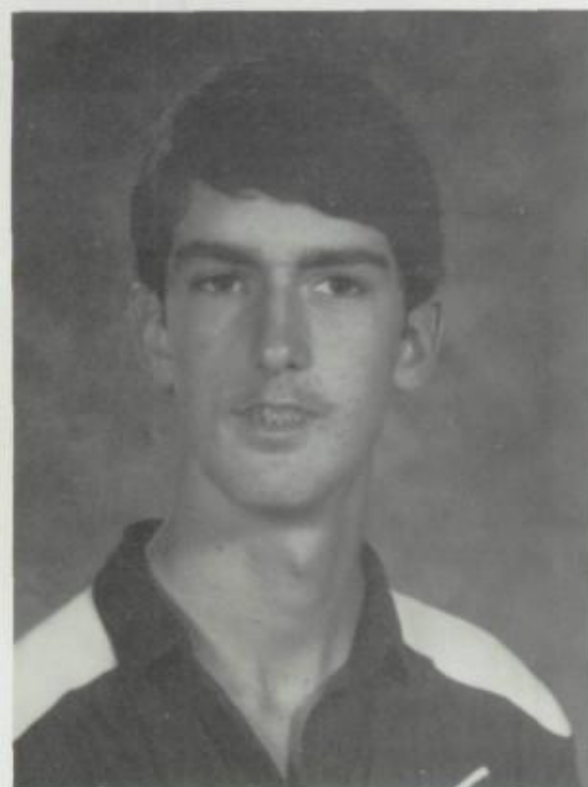

John Hassapis: Minister of Foreign Affairs

Lizz Allison: Minister of Social Affairs

Marianne Miyada: Minister of Publicity

Karen Ivener: Minister of Clubs and Assemblies

Mark Strickland: Minister of Elections

Marcia Meade: Minister of Improvements

House Of Lords Inspire Students To Excellence

The House of Lords was comprised of many different personalities. Three of the major officers were Reggie Bennet, Janet Herkins, and John Hassapis. Members participated in a multitude of activities.

Reggie Bennet, Prime Minister, was Chairperson of the Youth Committee in the City of Westminster. He was an involved member of TEPS and Interact, and participated as part of the California Rescue and American Red Cross Emergency Medical District Teams. On top of these, Reggie was active in varsity football, track, and volleyball.

Janet Herkins, the Lion's Chancellor, kept herself busy as Youth Committee Secretary for the City of Westminster. She was President of TEPS in her junior and senior years. Janet excelled in girl's athletics as well as in academics.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs was John Hassapis. He deserves recognition because his frequent participation in related activities. John was representative to the Board of Trustees and the Commission of Goals. He raised French Club attendance as president and was involved in service groups such as Interact and TEPS.

Foxy Frolics Dazzles Audience

After months of practice, the seventh annual Foxy Frolics dance and variety show was held March 27 and 28. Four months of enduring long practices seemed to have been "All In A Day's Work", the theme for 1981.

Variety was one of the key factors that led to the success of Foxy Frolics. Jungle Jazz took the audience on a safari; while Hot Wax danced to the tunes of a car wash. After Hours displayed the life after five. Hard Times introduced us to the dramatic side of life, while Cleanin' Out danced their way through Heartbreak Hotel, and the Sundown Saloon Swingers brought us back to the early western days.

Prizes were given to After Hours for first place, peoples choice. Cleanin' Out took second. A tie came between Hard Times and the Sundown Saloon Swingers. For all those who attended or participated in Foxy Frolics it will not be forgotten.

I'll always remember great times with great friends, especially Patti G.—Jackrabbit Ortiz, LA, AG, SE, JB; Will never forget Turntable, Flyin' Hawaiins, Rodeo dr.—punk? Red Mercedes, 16th B-day, Balboa—giving some guys a lift. Deisel Madness, throwing rice and potato salad. Disneyland w/ PG, LA, CM, & KM. We're from Texas—Amarillo? Betty Lou, and Kassy.—gag me, spare me. Medea, Palm Springs, Blah, Wow, No — ? Our all night thing. Foxy Frolics 80 and 81. Sailin' & cleanin' outs #1. Cruises 79, 80, and 81.—plus Hawaii. Jr/Sr proms, esp 80, and all the dances with Jon. Doubling w/John & Shannan. How about some champagne?—Patti and I living in Beverly Hills, as next door neighbors, married to best friends. Many Corniche Rolls & champagne Limos.—a dream that will come true. Special times w/Jon Brown—2 yrs. (3/2-14-26.) I luv you. Special love to Dad, Mom, and Patti—Thanks for so much, and always being there—I do love you . . . Still.

Love ya . . . Missy Hansen.

To all my special friends:

I could never thank you enough for all the happiness you've given me these past years. Lizz and Lee (you are extra-special to me.) Amie, Corinne, Mobis, Butt, Jackrabbit, John—#69—Junior, Linda, Don Ho, Shannon, Jack, Cathy, Reg (styrofoam head), Father Mike (Oh, I mean Glenn, Uh, Steve? John??—Leg's luvs ya Mike!) Hanna and Cecilia, I'm gonna miss you goons sooooo much—take care and stay crazy, "K"? I'll never forget pep council and all the fun rallies w/Lizzard, Lee, Corinne, Karen, Sonny, Alfred, and John. To my favorite Football guys who gave me lots of happy memories this year, Lee and John—I love ya. Extra special love and thanks to my best friend MISSY HANSEN. Everyone should be as lucky as I am to have a friend like her. "It is a gift from God to find a friend who will remain a friend forever." I couldn't live without you Miss!! Love and happiness, and much appreciation to my terrific mom and dad.

Bye-Bye Buddies
Love & friendship always,

In Memory

Audrea Della Castellano
1963-1981

Audrea was a loving friend. She had a radiant smile. A smile that said, "I love you, no matter what." Being so selfless and consistent Andrea could be counted on if someone needed her support. When she left this world, she took with her a part of everyone she knew. Yet she left so much. She taught us how to love, care, laugh and walk hand in hand with God. She will always remain an example to so many and there will always be a special place for her in our hearts. Andrea was truly a beautiful person and everyone will always cherish her memories.

Audrea Castellano was killed in an automobile accident on February 4, 1981. She was buried in Yreka, California on February 9, 1981.

Our lives blossom as we grow
to maturity.
The time comes when we
break away, loving, sharing,
forming

*... a brand
new pride*

Searching for our life's destiny, we reach out to learn, to experience, to be part of

*... a brand
new pride*

Realizing our goals for the first time, fighting
overwhelming odds we struggle to carry on

*... a brand
new pride*

Melody,

Even though i didn't get to know you
that well, you're still a sweet & nice person. Have a radical summer
& have fun too!! Take care!!

Lu & Friends,
Elena

Melody,
 Have a great summer, I guess this year
 went fairly well. To bad we had to have Baker for P.E. though. Well see ya next year
 Love,
 Lisa

Ahead we see, much to
 fortell,
 Questions unanswered, it's
 just as well;
 The joys of life, are all untold,
 The mysteries, we shall unfold.
 In secrets shall we all confide,
 And in them find

*... a brand
 new pride.*

---

---

As we grow old and time slips by,
In memories we'll share
We'll think of times we've spent in school,
And things we have learned there.
And then we'll look upon our lives
To see what we have seen;
And dream about the if's and but's,
And what we could have been.
But in our children we shall feed
The spirit deep inside;
And in them shall we carry on,
For us
